

Tangier Combined School

993

Second To None

TANGIER COMBINED SCHOOL

HARBORLIGHT 1993
TANGIER, VIRGINIA 23440

tangier combined school is second to none tangier combined school is second to

Student Life

There's a fire in the neighborhood. Who ya' gonna' call? CURT SHORES!!!

Heather Wheatley and Christa Dise pass the time idly at recess. They sure have blossomed over the summer. Since they are the only girls in their class, the boys must be glad to have them.

Jeff Shores, Shelli Crockett, Jaclyn Pruitt, Miriam Eskridge, Andy Haynie, and Frankie Pruitt cool off under the pines at the annual church picnic at Port Isobel. What's Jeff telling them to look at?! Whatever it is, Jaclyn is not worried!

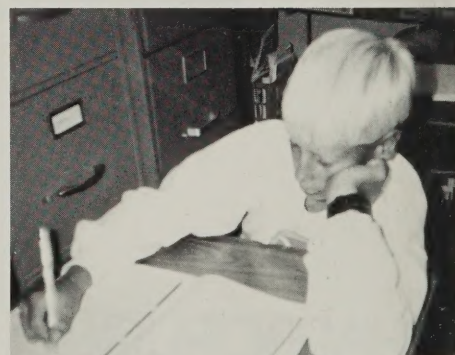

Jackie McCready, Shelli Crockett, and Ginna McCready represent the Tangier High School Cheerleaders as they march in the Tangier Town Christmas Parade. What a cold night!

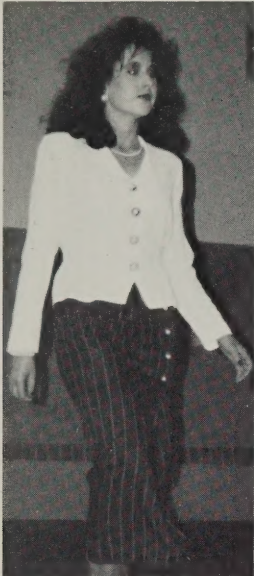

Time out! At recess, the high school boys discuss football plans and strategies.

Kyle Moore is busy coloring his hat. The seventh grade taught the second grade about Columbus.

Lewis Wheatley is hard at work. By the look on his face, he is doing a lot of concentrating.

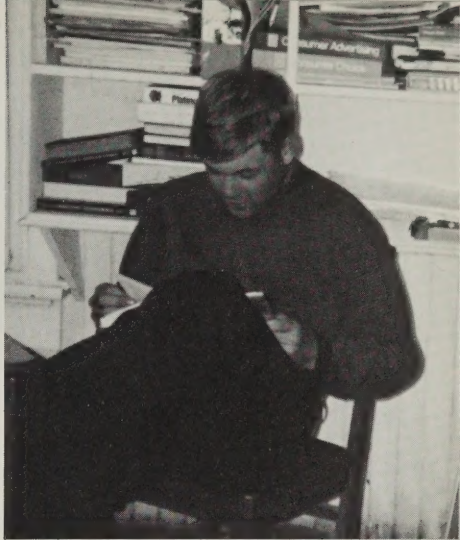

Faughn King makes modeling for the Junior/Senior Fashion Show look so easy.

Miss Paulette Parks helps one of little children, Brooke Marshall, put her Indian headdress on for the Elementary Thanksgiving program.

Dusty Gust is a Native American boy at the first Thanksgiving for the elementary program.

Christopher Parks finds a quiet corner of a room to catch up on his reading for research class.

Mrs. Nina Pruitt reads to the first grade during the library period. They all give her their rapt attention.

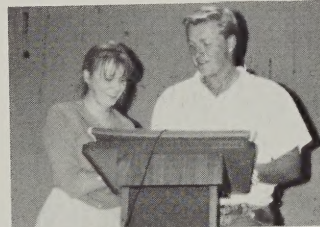

Timmy Thomas makes a bridge. Later, the class will test the number of bricks it can hold.

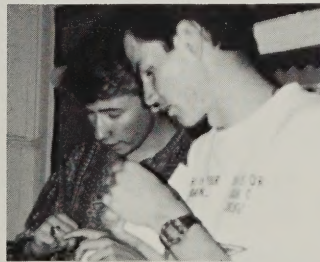

Norman Parks shows off his good looks in an elegant evening gown at the Fall Fashion Show.

"Tyler" Tyler prepares to go on stage for the Elementary Thanksgiving program. "Tyler" and his class reenacted the First Thanksgiving.

Andrea Parks and Aaron Dise practice their parts as Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clinton for the Fall Fashion Show.

Curt Shores and Bruce Parks examine class rings, symbols of their youth.

Elizabeth Charnock, Derrick Charnock, John Phillip Pruitt, Dustin Dise, Courtney Thomas, Amber Dise, and Sandy Dise enjoy lunch out on their way to a play about nursery rhymes.

Jackie McCready, Ginna McCready, Shelli Crockett, Allison Wheatley, and Leslie Parks perform at halftime at a home basketball game. The cheerleaders entertain the home crowd with dances and cheers. They also lead the crowd in school spirit cheers. Go, Islanders, Go!

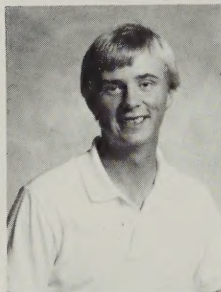

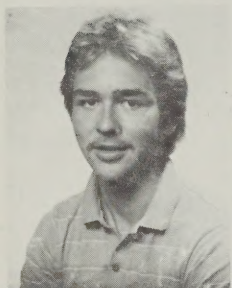

Class Of

1988

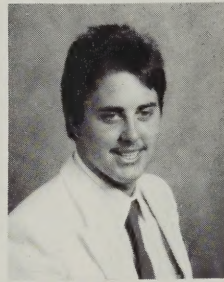

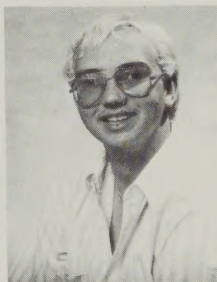

Second Memories

The class of 1988 enjoyed many exciting years at Tangier Combined School. For a health project, William Patrick Bonniwell, Bill Parks, Carl Dise, Bobby Cooper, Jean Parks, Terry Daley, Charles Bradshaw, Anita Parks, Mark Pruitt, and Claudette Holdgrafer traveled with Jean and Dewey Crockett to Crisfield where they toured McCready Hospital, Byrd's Nursing Home, and Bradshaw's Funeral Home. On their senior trip, the class visited Washington, D.C. and New York City. While in Washington, they saw the Washington Monument, the White House, and the Lincoln Memorial. In New York City, they toured the Statue of Liberty and the Empire State Building. They shopped at Macy's Department Store and dined at Mama Leone's restaurant. The class held fund raisers such as cake bakes and pizza bakes and candy and Tom-Wat sales. Their largest money maker was the annual Junior/Senior Fashion and Skit Show. The Junior/Senior play was "Boarding House Reach" directed by Jean Crockett. It was a big success and very funny. The class learned their lines in a short amount of time. Residents of the community donated old clothing, books, toys, and furniture to the school and the senior class held a rummage sale to raise money. All of their earnings financed their senior trip.

William Patrick Bonniwell
Charles Howard Bradshaw
Robert Ewell Cooper
Marion Taylor Crockett

Terry James Daley
Carlton Elwood Dise
Claudette Marie Holgrafer
William Andrew Parks

Anita Marie Parks
Helen Jean Parks
Mark Eric Pruitt

The Class of 1988 poses for a picture at the Christmas Dance. It doesn't look like Jean Parks and Bill Parks are all that interested in having their picture taken.

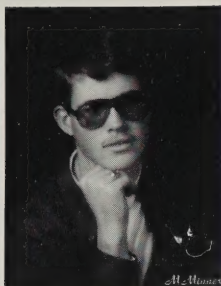

During senior year, seniors select stones and styles for class rings. Then, they anxiously await the arrival of THE senior status symbol. Class rings are the best part of a senior year — hands down!

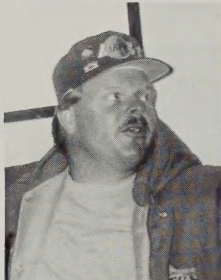

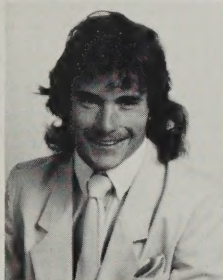

Mark Pruitt, William Bonniwell, Bill Parks, Terry Daley, Claudette Holdgrafer, Charles Bradshaw, Marion Crockett, Carl Dise, Jean Parks, Bobby Cooper, and Anita Parks visited Mount Vernon.

Class of 1989

Claudine Sue Crockett
Robert Lee Haynie

Richard William Laird
Adam Shawn Landon

Christine Marie Parks
Jamie Lynn Parks

In Washington, Jamie Parks, Shawn Landon, Claudine Crockett, Ricky Laird, Robert Haynie, and Chris Parks pose for a group shot.

Class Road Tripping

The Class of 1989 spent their senior year traveling on several field trips. They went to Crisfield and visited the Crisfield Morgue and Bradshaw's Funeral Home. Jean and Dewey Crockett took them to Norfolk and Richmond, too. While in Richmond, they also were able to take in a play. They saw the "Foreigner". In the Spring, the seniors traveled to Washington, D.C. and New York City for their senior trip. Finally, the Junior/Senior Cruise involved a trip to the Royal Exchange Pub in Salisbury for dinner. The Junior and Senior classes participated in a spring Fashion and Skit Show. The most memorable skit was a wrestling match with Shawn Landon and Ricky Laird. They also presented their own play the "Farmer's Daughter".

The Class of 1989 put on a spectacular play called the "Farmer's Daughter". Shawn Landon was Pa McDougal and Ricky Laird was Benjamin

The end of school is full of special days for the senior class. The Baccalaureate service was one of the most special days for the Class of 1989. The Swain Memorial United Methodist Church was the site of the service and the church gave each student a teen Bible.

On their tour of Crisfield with Jean and Dewey Crockett, Shawn Landon, Claudine Crockett, Jamie Parks, Chris Parks, and Robert Haynie stayed at a hotel in Crisfield.

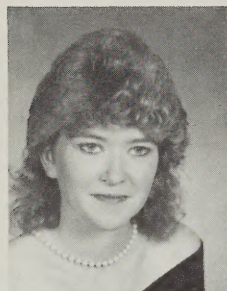

Robert Haynie, Shawn Landon, and Ricky Laird pose for a picture after changing for dinner at Mama Lion's in New York on their Senior Trip.

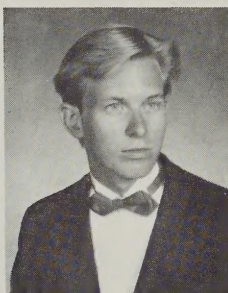

1990

Every year, the High School celebrates Valentine's Day with a dance. Janet Cannon and Anita Parks enjoy their refreshments and share a little gossip between dances.

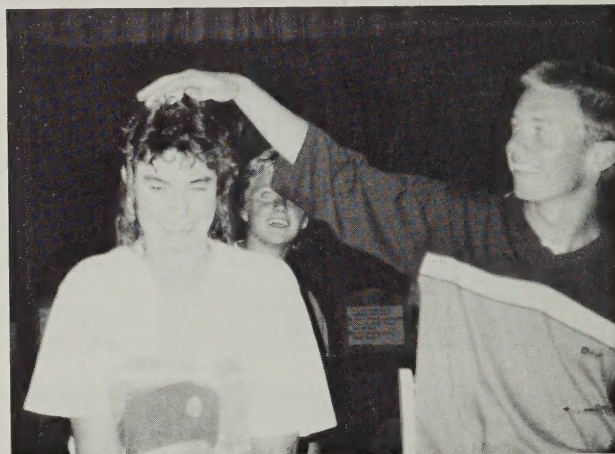

Janet Lynn Cannon

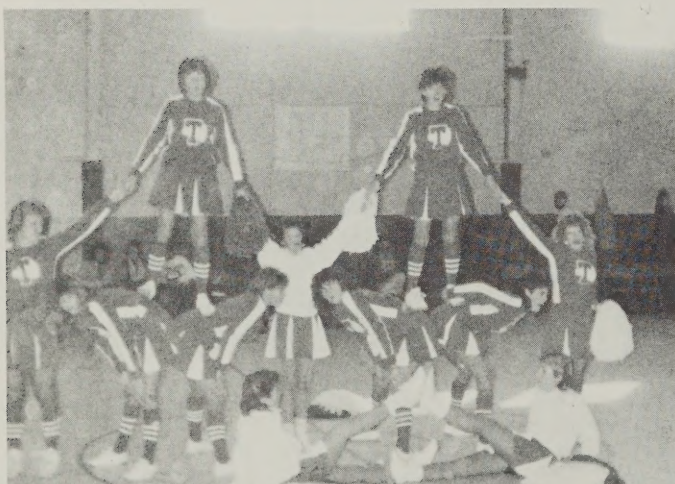

Richard Allen Parks

Shelia Marie Thorne

At the Halloween Party, Richie Parks cracks an egg on Claudine Crockett's head. Thankfully, this is one game we no longer play!

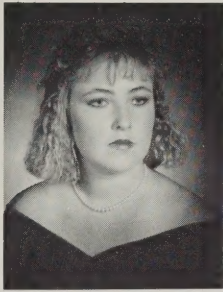

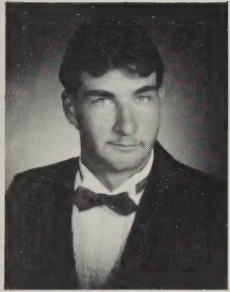

At a home basketball game, Shelia Thorne, Janet Cannon, and others wow the home crowd with the cheers, pyramids, and stunts. Let's get fired up, Islanders!

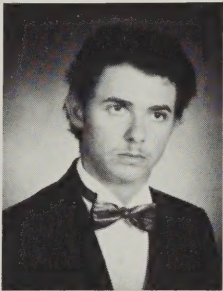

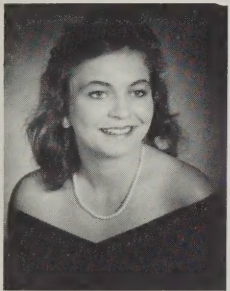

... Three To Get Ready ...

This small class proved that good things can come in small packages, especially during their senior year. Under the direction of Mrs. Jean Crockett, they produced a play called "Oh, Smokey's", with the junior class. It was particularly funny. For fund raising, they held a rummage sale, a Fashion/Skit show, pizza bake sales, and sold Tom-Wat. On their Senior Trip, they traveled to New York City and Washington, D.C. While in New York, the class of 1990 toured the Empire State Building, shopped at Macy's Department Store, and ate dinner at Mama Leone's Restaurant. Janet Cannon and Shelia Thorne showed their school spirit by cheering for the basketball games and Richie Parks played basketball. The situation of only having three students in one class is a rarity, even on Tangier Island. This unique character drew the attention of Mr. Bob West from WVEC Channel 13 news. Mr. West came to Tangier and interviewed Janet, Shelia, and Richie for his news broadcast, "Points West". For their senior cruise, this class raised enough money to cruise to Crisfield, Maryland, and then take a bus to Salisbury, Maryland, for dinner and dancing at the Sheraton Inn in Salisbury. It was a night to remember!

Class of 1991

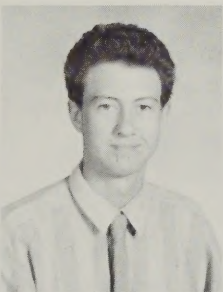

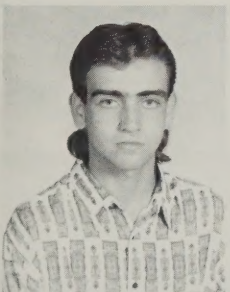

Charles Raymond
Charnock
Paula Danielle Charnock

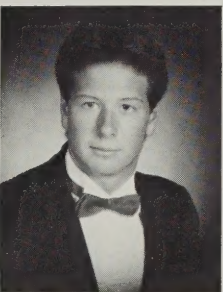

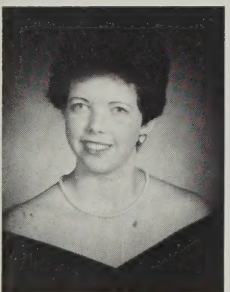

Paul Ryan Daley
Stephanie Crockett
Daley

On a warm spring night,
Anthony Parks, Rick Howell, and Chris Roberette "ham
it up" for the camera.

Richard Allen Howell
Phillip George McCready

Virginia Ann McCready
Anthony Wayne Parks

At the 1991 Junior/Senior
Prom, Virginia Ann
McCready and Corey Crockett entertain the crowd by showing them
how to dance.

At the Junior/Senior Prom in May, Rick Howell and his date, Stephanie Wallace, change the mood from being classy to just being themselves.

Before a basketball game,
Danielle Charnock, Virginia
Ann McCready, and Stephanie Daley finish primping. They are ready to pump up the home crowd with cheers.

While on the Kindergarten
Easter Egg Hunt, Frankie
Pruitt, Phillip McCready, Stevie Parks, Virginia Ann
McCready, Anthony
Parks, Stephanie Crockett, Ryan Daley, Robert Thorne, and Danielle
Charnock pose for a group shot with teacher
Miss Parks while parents take pictures.

Memories Of The Class Of 1991

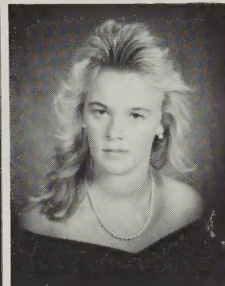

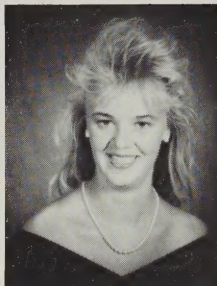

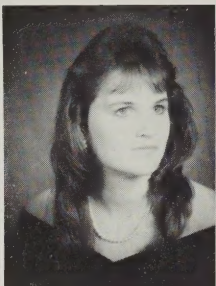

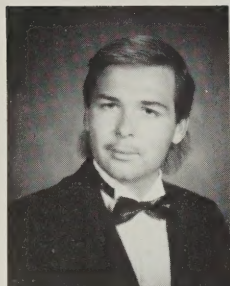

Class of 1991 in New York City on their senior trip.

The Class of 1991 remembers school with good memories. Dewey and Jean Crockett took them to Crisfield, Maryland. While there, they toured McCready Hospital and the Byrd Nursing Home. The class visited Linda McCready and Willis Crockett. They traveled to the Bradshaw Funeral home. They saw how to cremate a body and how to embomb a body for a funeral. The Class of 1991 journeyed to New York City for their senior trip.
They enjoyed an active trip including a tour of the city, a visit to the Empire State Building, and shopping at Macy's.
Mama Leone's made for a great evening meal. The guys treated the gals to dinner because the ladies sold
Tom-Wat by themselves.
They took a cab everywhere they went. In the spring, the Class of 1991 participated in a work study program that provided them with valuable work experience. Virginia
Ann McCready worked at the Island Market. Danielle Charnock worked at the Fisherman's Corner Restaurant.
Stephanie Daley worked at Daley and Son Grocery. Raymond Charnock worked at Charnock and Son Ice and Bait Company. Phillip
McCready worked at Port
Isabel. Rick Howell worked at Tangler Oil Company. Anthony Parks worked for Rudy Thomas and Ryan Daley worked for the town at the sewer plant. The Class of 1991 memories are second to none.

Class Of 92

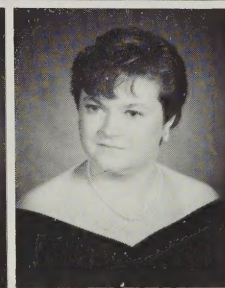

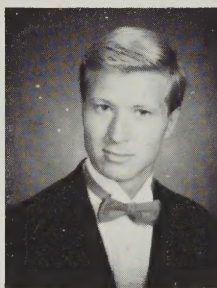

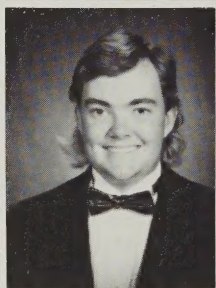

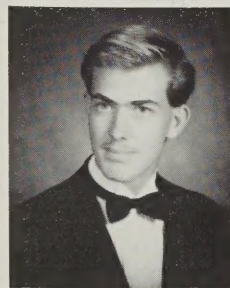

The class paused to catch their breath while hiking a trail through the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Craig Hugh Bonniwell
Marilyn Elizabeth Bowden
Mary Ellen Bowden
Melissa Hope Bowden

Dennis Ray Crockett
Donald Allen Crockett
Debra June Dize
Stewart William Parks

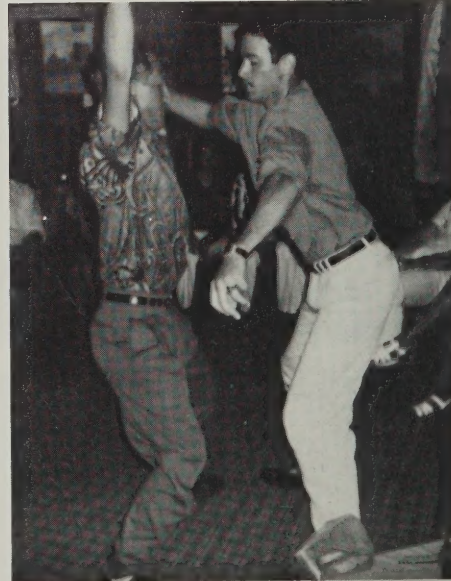

Frankie Allen Pruitt
Gary Wayne Pruitt
Jackie Wesley Pruitt
Jacqueline Suzanne Pruitt

What are Frankie Pruitt and Craig Bonniwell up to? Have they been in the wrong punch bowl?

On the Spirit of New York, the seniors propose a toast.

Jack Pruitt and Denny Crockett get down with M.C. Hammer at the 1992 Cruise. Break it down, guys!

Class Of 1992 And Forty 2nd Street

The class of 1992 participated in fund raising activities including pizza bake sales, a rummage sale, poster sales, and Tom Wat. In the spring, the Junior/Senior play productions were "Charge Of The Bathtub Brigade", "Mr. Patterson's $5,000 Dog Is Dead", "Details At Eleven", and "Run, Robber, Run". The money raised went for a Senior Trip to New York, New York. The students spent a day at the NBC Studios touring the sets of the Donahue Show, the Today Show, and Saturday Night Live. They also toured the Empire State Building and Macy's Department Store. They ended their weekend with a horse and carriage ride and a dinner cruise on the Spirit of New York. Another popular activity for Seniors is the job study program. This year provided some interesting job assignments. Gary Pruitt worked at Bradshaw's Funeral Home in Crisfield, Maryland. Stewart Parks worked at Pruitt's Boatyard, Debra Dize at the Island Market, and Marilyn Bowden at Fisherman's Corner.

Class of ... 93

Teri Pruitt smiles as she wraps up her fashion debut. With an outfit like that she'll be a sure hit at college next year.

Teri Pruitt and Andrea Parks are admiring their graduation rings. What a year for the seniors. This is one big step in life for them. These rings symbolize their last year.

Faughn King, Hope Crockett, and Andrea Parks get down and boogie at the Christmas Dance. They danced the night away and then danced away their senior year.

Bruce Parks looks like he just stepped out of an aerobics class. He could easily be an instructor. Watch out Irene!

Denny "Herb" Dise is getting ready to play the part of Denny Bonar in the Junior/Senior Skit Show.

Librarian Nina Pruitt sprinkles cheese on a pizza for one of many pizza bakes to help raise money for the seniors. She's such an expert.

Joey Cooper has just finished a day of cooking at the Chesapeake House. Boy is he exhausted! Cooking for all those tourists is lots of work.

say cheese

seniors are second to

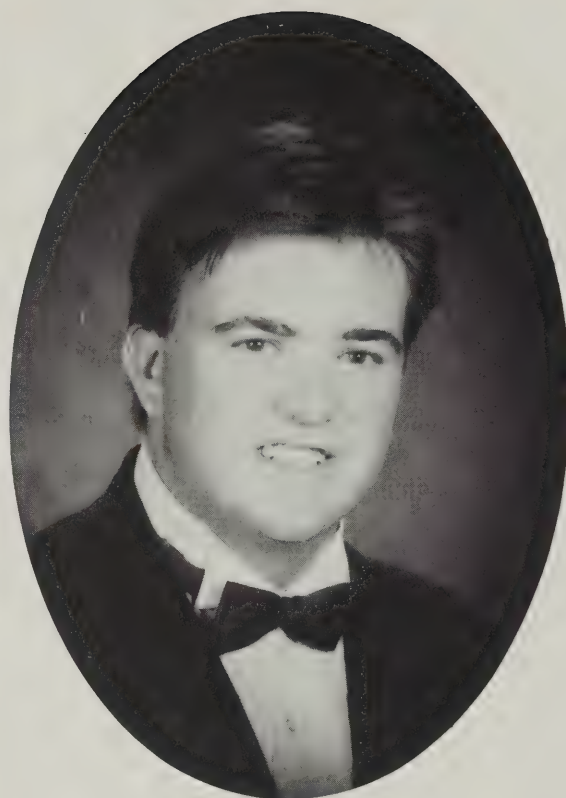

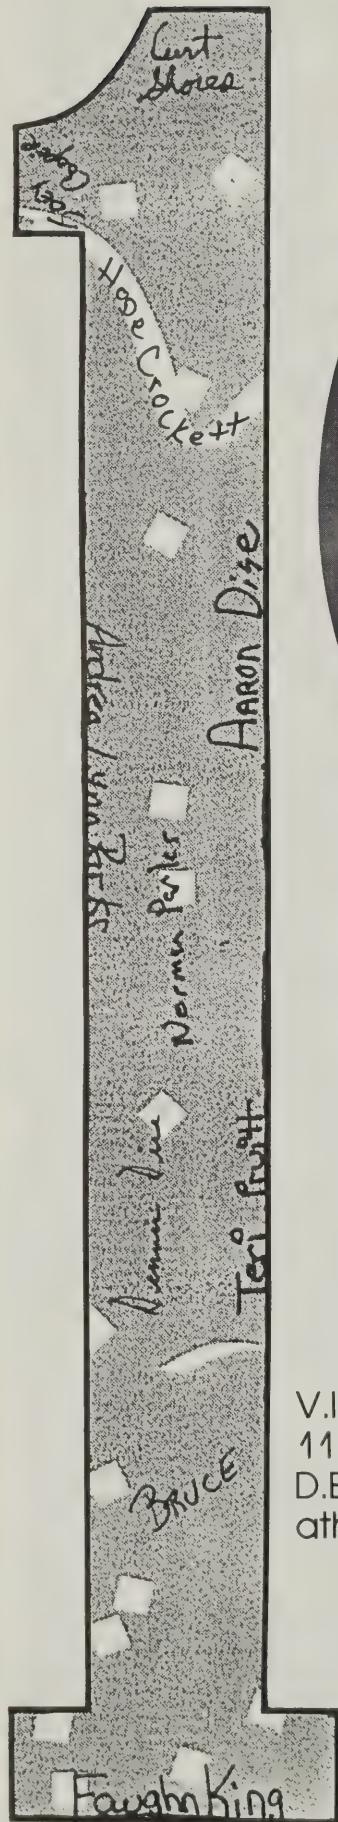

FAVORITE GROUPS
AC/DC
Poison
Bad Company
Bryan Adams
Def Leppard
Guns 'N Roses
Motley Crue
Michael Bolton
Garth Brooks

FAVORITE SONGS
"If You Needed Somebody"
"Something To Believe In"
"Knocking On Heaven's Door"
"Have You Ever
Needed Someone
So Bad"

FAVORITE MOVIES
Predator
Pretty Woman
Terminator 2
Double Impact
Savannah Smiles
Basic Instinct
Hand That Rocks
The Cradle
Prince of Tides

FAVORITE ACTORS
Jean Claude Van
Damme
Richard Gere
Charlie Sheen
Harrison Ford

FAVORITE ACTRESS
Goldie Hawn
Kim Basinger
Donna Mills
Sally Field
Julia Roberts

Joseph Aaron
Cooper

Basketball Team — 8, 9, 10, 11,
12. Hi-Y Treasurer — 9.

Nadine Hope
Crockett

V.I.M.S. — 9, 10, 11. Hi-Y — 9, 10, 11. Cheerleader — 8, 9, 10.
D.E.C.A. — 12. Word of Life Marathon — 8, 9, 10, 11.

Aaron Gladstone Dise

V.I.M.S. — 9, 10. Hi-Y — 10, 11,
12. M.G.A. — 11, 12. D.E.C.A. —
12. Basketball Team — 8, 9, 10,
11, 12. Health Fair Volunteer —
10, 11, 12.

Dennis Elsworth Dise

V.I.M.S. — 9, 10, 11. Hi-Y — 9,
10, 11. M.G.A. — 9, 11.
D.E.C.A. — 12. Basketball Team — 8. Health Fair Volunteer — 9, 10, 11.

They Earned
The Right To Party
All Night!

The Class of 1993 celebrated a senior year full of change. One big change was the class agenda. School started thirty minutes earlier for all students to accommodate the satellite class times. They took a marketing class taught by Mr. Sam Neek from Nandua High School. With marketing, they joined D.E.C.A. and collected toys for underprivileged children of the Eastern Shore. Some seniors took Spanish in the evenings with Mr. Tim Robbins. In March, the class participated in the junior/senior play, "Next Victim Please." Their roles were: Priscilla — Foughn, Herbert — Norman, Susan — Hope, Kid — Bruce, Rebecca — Andrea, Higgins — Cati, #1 — Teri, Malone — Denny, Clifford — Aaron, and Detective — Joey. In May, the Class of 1993 took a senior trip that was 2nd to none! They flew to Florida for 1993 Grad Night at Walt Disney World. Finally, a senior cruise topped off their special year.

Future Plans Of The Class Of 1993

Andrea Parks

On January 16, Andrea Parks was notified that she had been accepted to Salisbury State University in Salisbury, Maryland. In the fall of 1993, she will be moving on campus at S.S.U. to major in banking and finance. She will pursue a career as a bank officer. Andrea applied to both S.S.U. and Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia. When asked why she chose Salisbury, she replied, "Because I'd have a car!"

Denny Dise

On January 16, Denny Dise was notified that he had been accepted into the United States Navy. He is hoping to work with computers. He will take basic training in the Great Lakes area. He has signed up for a four year enlistment. Ultimately, Denny would like to finish his enlistment, go to college in a Navy R.O.T.C. program, and reenlist as a career naval officer.

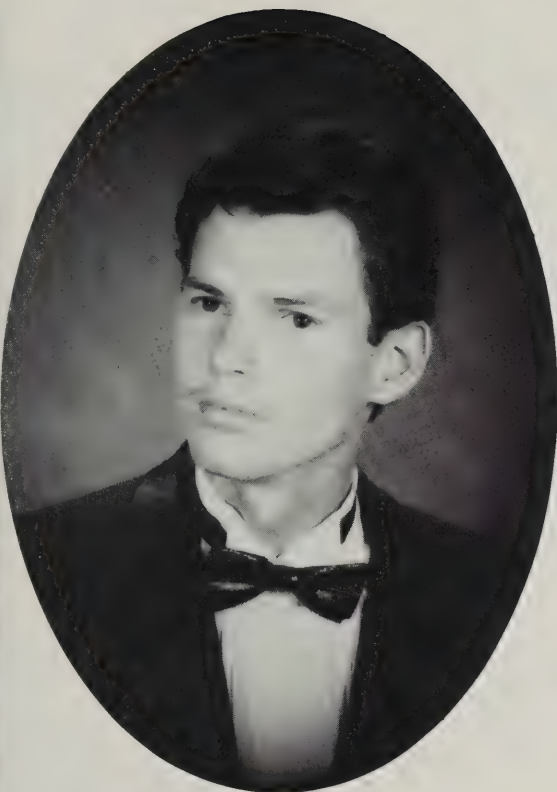

Andrea Lynn Parks

V.I.M.S. — 9, 10, 11. Cheerleader — 8, 9, 10, 11. Hi-Y — 9, 10, 11, 12. M.G.A. — 9, 11, 12. D.E.C.A. — 12. Word of Life Marathon — 8, 10, 11, 12. Heath Fair Volunteer — 9, 10, 11, 12.

Faughn Alicia King

V.I.M.S. — 9, 10, 11. Hi-Y — 9, 10, 11, 12. Hi-Y Secretary — 12. M.G.A. Doorkeeper — 10. M.G.A. Delegate — 11, 12. D.E.C.A. — 12. Cheerleader — 8, 9, 10, 11. Health Fair Volunteer — 9, 10, 11, 12. Church Picnic Committee — 9, 10, 11, 12. Vacation Bible School Volunteer — 9, 11, 12. American Cancer Society Collector — 11.

Bruce Allen Parks

Basketball Team — 8, 9, 10, 11, 12.

Norman Brady Parks

Basketball Team — 8, 9, 10, 11, 12.

Hope Crockett

On January 11, 1993, Hope Crockett went to Delaware Technical Community College to take a placement test. On January 15th, she registered for accounting, math, English, Introduction to business and keyboarding. Hope's goal is to obtain an associates degree in business management or accounting. She would like to work in a bank in the future. When asked why she chose Del. Tech, Hope said, "I have family that lives up there, to have somewhere to stay. It offers good programs and it would be good training for me."

Norman Parks

On January 15, 1993, Norman Parks was accepted to Salisbury State University. Norman is undecided concerning his major or future plans. He plans to live on campus. When asked why he chose S.S.U., Norman said, "Because it's close, it's pretty good, and it's small."

Curt Shores

On January 27, 1993, Curt Shores received a letter from Congressman Herb Rasmussen stating that he had received a congressional appointment for consideration for the U.S. Naval Academy. A naval officer career is Curt's goal.

Seniors Speak Out

How the Seniors described each other.

Aaron — warmizer,
"Baby Blues", loving

Andrea — sly, charming, popular

Bruce — friendly,
athletic, sly

Curt — intelligent, "bad influence", wild

Denny — speaky,
exciting,
practical

Faughn — romantic, "boy
crazy", "stands out"

Hope — funny, hard-working, silly,
"picture perfect"

Joey —
talkative,
inspirational,
"good natured"

Norman — serious, worry-free, good rebounder, quiet

Teri — beautiful, "putt-chess", good listener to problems,
friendly

Class Motto
— "Friends
Nt The End and 'Come On Gang"

Teri Lee Pruitt

V.I.M.S. — 9, 10, 11. Hi-Y — 9,
10, 11, 12. Hi-Y Vice President
— 12. M.G.A. — 11, 12.
D.E.C.A. — 12. Cheerleader —
8, 9, 10, 11. Health Fair Volunteer — 9, 10, 11, 12. Vacation
Bible School Volunteer — 8, 9, 10, 11, 12. American Cancer Society Collection — 12.

Mitchell Curtis Shores

V.I.M.S. — 10, 11, 12. Hi-Y President 12. Basketball Team — 8, 9, 10, 11, 12. M.G.A. — 11, 12.
D.E.C.A. — 12. Health Fair Volunteer — 11, 12. Tangier Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad — 11, 12.

juniors are second to none juniors are second to none juniors are second to none

Juniors

Eric Jason Charnock
William Stacy Crockett

Christopher Andrew Parks
Joan Marie Parks

In the Junior/Senior Skit Show, Christopher "Waah" Parks and Jason "Fishy" Charnock practice their parts as their grand-mothers.

Leslie Ames Parks
Rudy James Shores

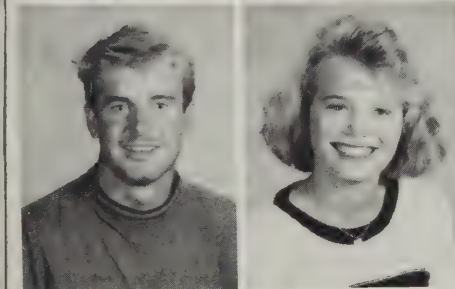

Jason Allen Thomas
Allison Renee Wheatley

Scooters get the royal treatment under Christopher Park's expert hand, during the car/truck/bicycle/-motorcycle wash the Junior and Senior classes held in October as a fund raiser.

Allison Wheatley breathes a sigh of relief as she steps off the stage at the Junior/Senior Fashion Show held in November. Although modeling is fun, it can be very stressful

a SECOND look at the eleven ONES

This year, the Junior class assisted the Senior class in raising money for the Junior/Senior prom and the Senior trip. Fund raising activities included a Scooter/Bicycle/Motorcycle/Car Wash, pizza bake sales, a rummage sale, a poster sale, and good ole Tom Wati!

The Scooter/Bicycle/Motorcycle/Car Wash was held at the gas dock on a cold day in October, thanks to Mr. Denny Crockett. Even the town brought its fire trucks for a washing. The entire event was captured on film for posterity by Mr. Bob West from WVEC.

In November, the Junior class traveled to Nandua High School for College Day. They had the opportunity to meet and talk with recruiters from colleges in Virginia and neighboring states.

In May, the Junior class joined the Seniors on the cruise. From Tangier, they cruised to Crisfield. From there, they boarded a bus for Salisbury, Maryland. A disc jockey provided tunes for a great evening of dancing.

The Junior class also participated in the Fall and Spring Fashion Shows. Some of the funnier skits were "Wayne's World", with Joey Cooper and Bill Crockett, the Boys' Ballet with Jason Charnock as the "prima donna", and Wishy-Washy-Wash with Christopher Parks, Jim Shores, Jason Charnock, and Jason Thomas. Bill Crockett played his guitar. Allison Wheatley, Leslie Parks, and Joan Parks sang "The Rose" by Bette Midler. Aaron "Clinton" Disc, Curt "Perot" Shores, and Bruce "Bush" Parks debated.

This year, the Junior class was 2nd to none!

Joan and Leslie Parks have a blast at the Christmas Party.

One

Step

Away

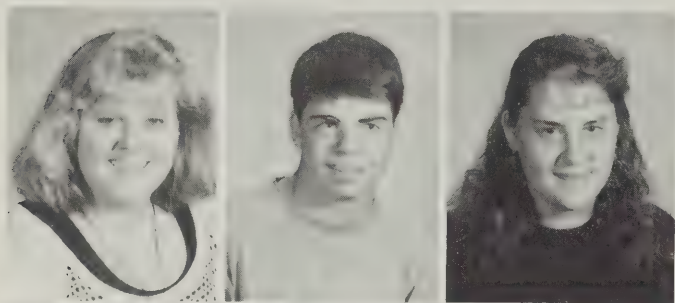

none juniors are second to none juniors are second to none

2nd2none

15

Sophomores

Look out Mrs. Carlene Shores, Jeff Shores is robbing your purse once again. You had better buy a pad lock!

Cathy Adele Bradshaw
Carey Dwayne Cline
Miracle Dawn Creedle

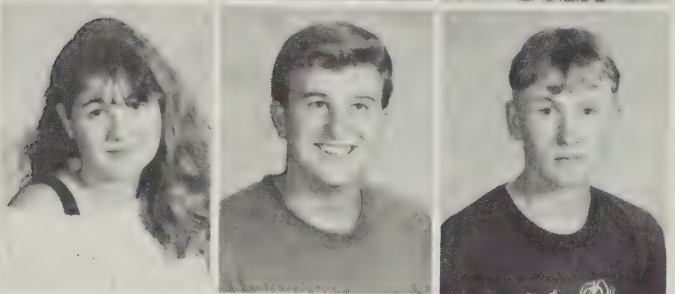

The Nine To None

Andrew Mark Haynie
Virginia Lynn McCready
Carlton James Parks

The tenth grade gained a new member this year. The minister's daughter, Miracle Creedle, quickly became close companions with the entire class. From September through November, the tenth grade participated in the regional blue crab recruitment study sponsored by the Virginia Marien Institute of Marine Science. Interest in the project dwindled from past years, so the tenth grade was the only class to participate in high school. In November, the V.I.M.S. project managers came to Tangier to collect our samples and to talk to the class. This year also saw that momentous milestone in every teacher's short life — the year of the DRIVER'S LICENSE! The tenth grade took Driver's Education class with Mrs. Nina Pruitt. They gained road experience with Mrs. Peggy Pusey. In the spring, the class traveled to the Onancock Department of Motor Vehicles to apply for driver's licenses. As a result, there is a new crop of drivers on the island. CLEAR THE ROADS!!!

Jaclyn Marie Pruitt
Jeffery Leon Shores
Lorin Lee Wheatley

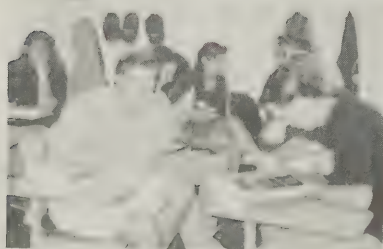

At the Christmas Dance, sophomores Jaclyn Pruitt and Jeff Shores show off their moves. With these cousins, dancing is a family affair. Rumor is Jeff's mom taught him everything he knows!

While playing musical chairs at the Halloween Party, Cathy Bradshaw rounds the corner headed for the next open chair.

During science class, Andy Haynie pensively considers the theory of relativity.

After playing another winning basketball game, Carlton Parks helps decide where to eat dinner.

The tenth grade en masse: Miracle Creedle, Jeff Shores, Carlton Parks, Jaclyn Pruitt, Ginna McCready, Cathy Bradshaw, and Andy Haynie.

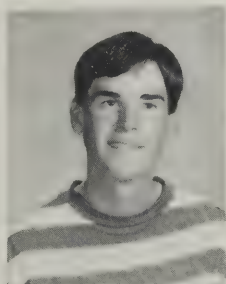

During a high school party, senior Curt Shores and sophomore Cathy Bradshaw stop in the hallway for a little quiet conversation.

freshmen are second to none freshmen are second to none freshmen are

Class of 96

Shelli Crockett and Miriam Eskridge pause from a science experiment to test scooter shocks.

The ninth grade takes advantage of their free time by discussing the latest gossip. J.R. Parks is known to be nosy.

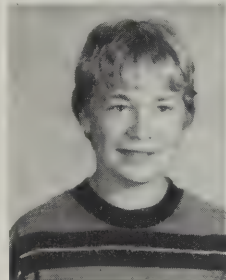

Freshman Year At A 2nd Glance

In the fall, the ninth grade bunked for a night at Port Isabel. Activities were provided by the Chesapeake Bay Foundation. They spent the day oyster dredging by hand at Oyster Rock, "mud-larking" through the marsh, studying different life forms of the Chesapeake Bay, and canoeing. They ended the day by roasting marshmallows over a campfire in the woods.

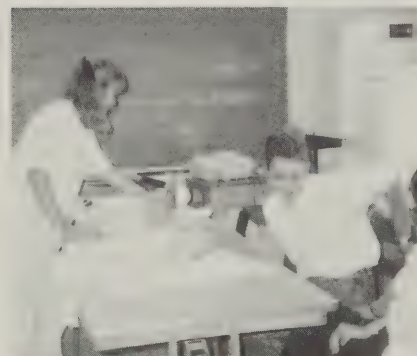

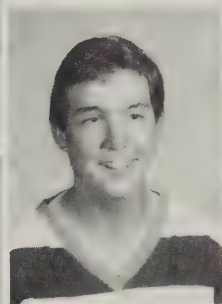

In Technology Education class, the guys made shelves, benches, and crab pots. With Mr. Gordy's patience and guidance, they've become expert woodworkers. Meanwhile, in Home Economics class, the gals studied baby care and cooking. More than once, they made students and teachers hungry while enticing aromas of bread, cookies, pies, and cakes drifted through the hallways!

This year saw the beginning of the middle school Drug Abuse Resistance Education or D.A.R.E. program sponsored by the Accomack County Sheriff's Department. Cooperative instructors were Sgt. Larry Giddens and Mrs. Nina Pruitt. Activities included role playing, worksheets, skits, and discussions about drugs and their effects on people.

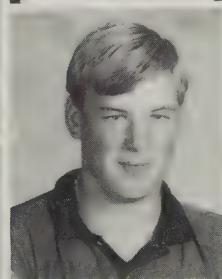

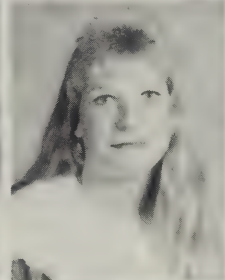

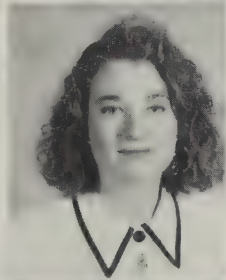

This year, the ninth graders are 2nd to none.

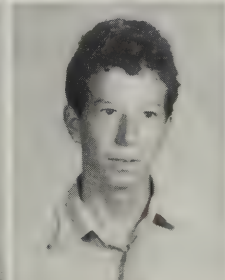

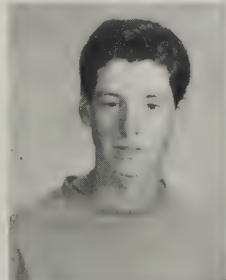

Duane Crockett, Miriam Eskridge, and Allen Parks measure the distance the sunlight travels as part of a science project.

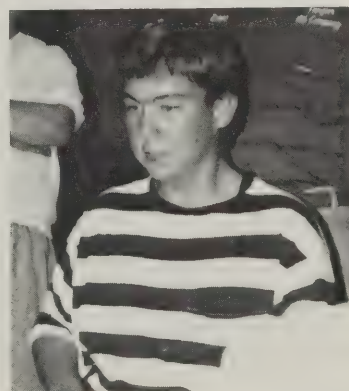

Shelli Crockett and the ninth grade girls watch as Barbara Marshall washes her son, Edward Vance Marshall, Jr., Class of 2010. Including the bathing of real babies in Baby Care makes Home Economics classes more pleasurable.

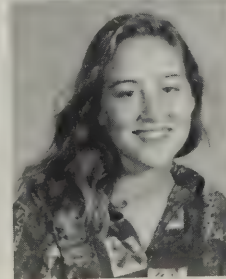

Kim Allen Parks Jr.
Michael Smith Parks, Jr.
Michael Ryan Parks

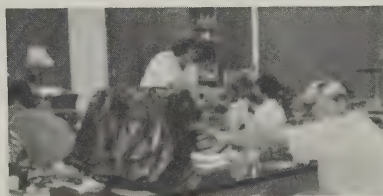

Daniel Keith McCready
Jackie Leigh McCready
Brandon Neil Parks

Allen Parks watches as the spoon is passed during "Musical Spoons" at the Halloween Party.

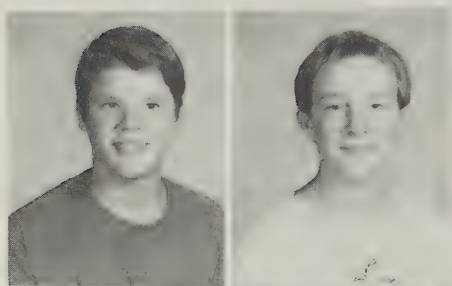

Donald Reed Bowden
Duane Mark Crockett
Shelli Renee Crockett
Charles Harris Dise
Miriam Faith Eskridge

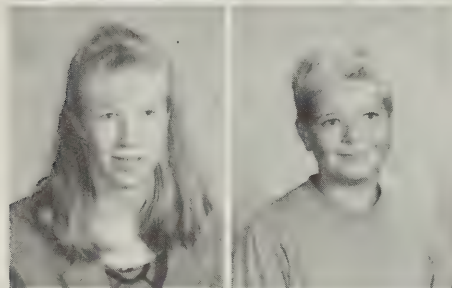

We caught you, Mike!!!

second to none freshmen are second to none freshmen are

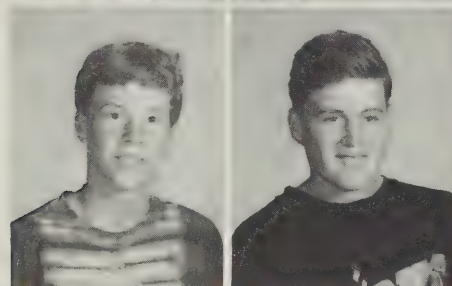

8th Grade

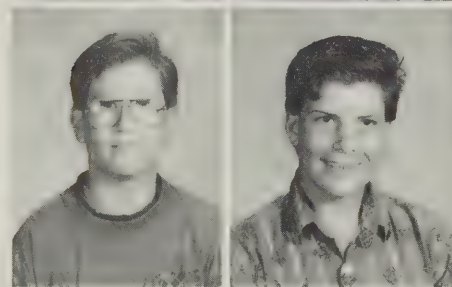

Lawrence Wade
Creedle, III
Daniel Carlton
Crockett

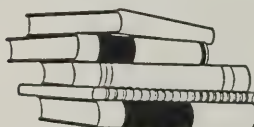

Christa Jean Dise
James Nicholas Dize

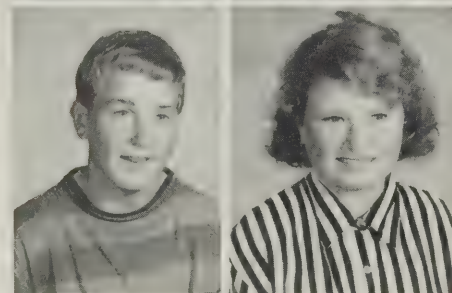

James Warren
Eskridge
Warren Reed Eskridge

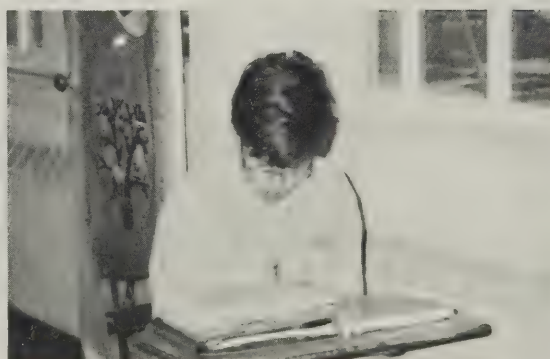

Charles Jared Parks
Joshua Phillip Pruitt

Timothy Allen Thomas
Heather Franklin
Wheatley

During school, Jared Parks uses his free time to study for his semester exams.

The New Ones

The eighth grade enjoyed a fun filled first year of high school. In September, they attended their first high school party — a Back To School Dance. They accompanied the ninth grade on an overnight field trip to Port Isabel to participate in activities offered by the Chesapeake Bay Foundation. They spent a day and a half canoeing by moonlight, walking on nature walks, mud larking in the marsh, and playing team games. They spent the night in the bunk house but not many of them were sleeping. Most of the students stayed up all night talking. The eighth grade ate their meals at the Foundation's conference center. Academic studies for the eighth grade included making a bridge, a catapult, and a truck for technology education class and making a dress in Home Economics class. In English class, the eighth grade studied about Anne Frank and World War II. They acquired word processing and typing skills, too.

James Eskridge and the eighth grade boys built bridges in Mr. Gordy's shop class to test the weight a bridge could support. Here, James uses a band saw to complete his bridge.

At the Christmas Dance, Timothy Thomas raises his hand in salute to the holiday season.

Gregory Anthony Allman
Amanda Lee
Charnock
Jessica Marie Howell
Charles Eric
McCready

Edward Lewis Pruitt
Candice Annette
Thomas
Lewis Smarr Wheatley
Rebecca Diane
Wheatley

Seventh Grade As Teachers

The seventh grade had a year second to none. During their last year in elementary school, the seventh grade worked with Mrs. Nina Pruitt on a thematic unit about Christopher Columbus and his journey. They found stories about Columbus and they made activities that showed how the Nina, Pinta, Santa Maria crossed the Atlantic Ocean. Then, the seventh grade presented these activities to the younger grades in the library for Columbus Day. The seventh grade celebrated Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's Day with class parties. At the Halloween party, they held a costume guessing. Edward Pruitt was the last person guessed. He was dressed as a spook. Mrs. Jennifer Crockett, Accomack Country Marine Biology teacher, came to Tangier and taught the seventh grade about the Chesapeake, fresh water, and salt water. In the spring, the seventh grade enjoyed a field trip to Washington, D.C.

In observation of Columbus Day, Lewis Wheatley teaches Kenny Pruitt about the journey of the Nina, Pinta, and the Santa Maria.

After recess, Becky Wheatley washes up before heading back to her classroom to hit the books.

In the library, Becky Wheatley shows Hillary Parks and her class about Christopher Columbus and his journey in honor of Columbus Day.

Before school, Lewis Wheatley shows off his charm and his winning smile.

6th Grade

As part of the Halloween Party activities Loni Renée Moore and Carolyn Pruitt whistle while chewing crackers.

Before school, Carolyn Pruitt picks up a notebook for math class from Jackie McCready at the Cheerleader's Bookstore.

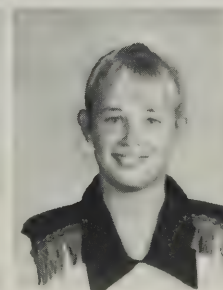

Party On, Sixth Grade!

The sixth grade experienced a year second to none. They celebrated Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's Day with classroom parties. At the Halloween party they played many games such as whistling with crackers, bobbing apples, and others. The winner of the costume competition was Anna Parks. She came dressed as a scarecrow. They celebrated Christmas with a Christmas Party and by exchanging gifts with each other. They also participated in an Easter Egg Hunt in Mr. King's yard. The sixth grade's academic studies included computer skills, a study of the Presidents, and rocks. Every Monday, each student brought an article from the newspaper to post on the class Current Events bulletin board. They traveled to Washington, D.C. for their field trip. What a year!

Jordan Edward Crockett
Rebecca Jean Crockett
Gena Marie Mills
Anna Elizabeth Pruitt

The best part of a Monday morning is sharing the latest gossip and talking about the weekend happenings. Carolyn Pruitt, Carolee Pruitt, Gena Mills, and Leigh Pruitt seem to have a great deal to discuss.

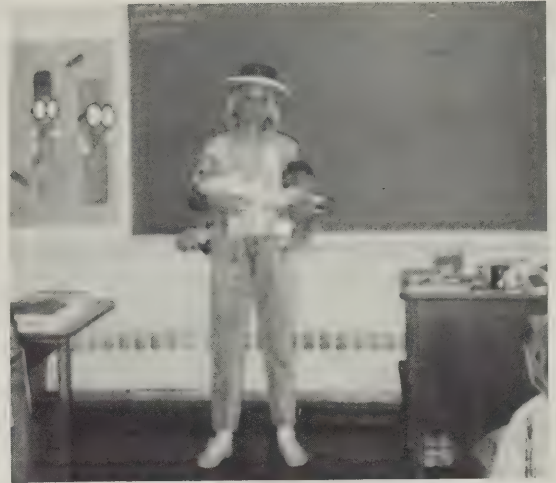

Carolee Pruitt
Carolyn Ann Pruitt
Kristin Leigh Pruitt

5th Grade

The fifth grade class was very enthusiastic about National Library Week.

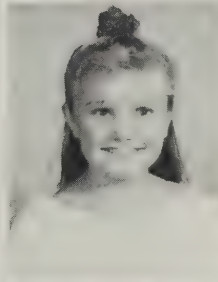

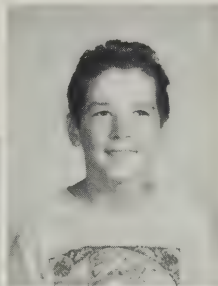

Sister Bear of the Berenstain Bears was represented by Jenny Wheatley during National Library Week.

Here And D.A.R.E.

The D.A.R.E. program played a major part in the fifth grade's year. Instructor Larry Giddens taught the class all about peer pressure, self esteem, and stress. In the spring, the class had "D.A.R.E. Day" at Nandua High School. At this event, the students spent an entire day playing games, eating pizza and fried chicken, and drinking Pepsi. Then, in May, the D.A.R.E. graduation was held to commemorate their achievements. In May, the class, along with the fourth, sixth, and seventh grades, went to Washington, D.C. for a field trip. There, they visited historic sites such as the Lincoln Memorial, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and the Vietnam Memorial Wall. On Halloween, Mr. King held a costume party, where they played games and ate candy. They also celebrated Christmas and Valentine's Day with parties. This year, on the computers, the fifth grade started a new math program that uses games to solve equations.

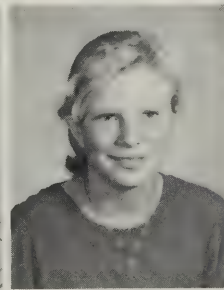

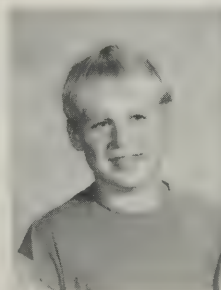

Loni Renee Moore, dressed as Laura Ingalls Wilder, gives her presentation on life in the 1800's.

Gary Parks, like many other boys, loves the Chicago Bears! To celebrate National Library Week, he dressed as Neil Anderson.

Andrew Paul Haynie
Loni Renee Moore
Gary White Parks III
Kristan Dale Parks
Lindsay Beth Parks

Richard Adam Parks
Rudy Adonnall Thomas, III
Jennifer Robin Wheatley

fourth grade is second to none fourth grade is second to none fourth grade is

4th Grade

While out at recess, Kara Eskridge tries to make a basket while James Dail Parks and Jennifer Crockett cheer her onward.

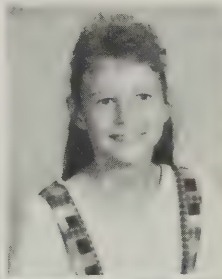

Shoot for two!! Hugh Crockett shows great promise to be a good basketball player when he gets to high school.

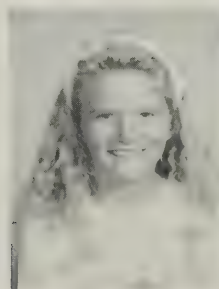

The fourth grade takes a break from class to change subjects. Amanda Markey, Jenny Crockett, and Kara Eskridge collect their books and pencils.

During recess, Jennifer Crockett takes her turn at making baskets. Looks like a two pointer!!

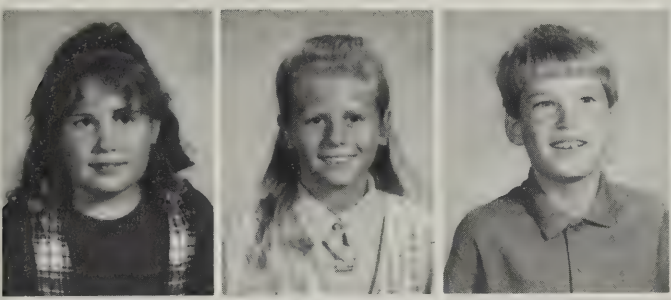

After recess, James Dail Parks lounges at the water fountain before returning to class.

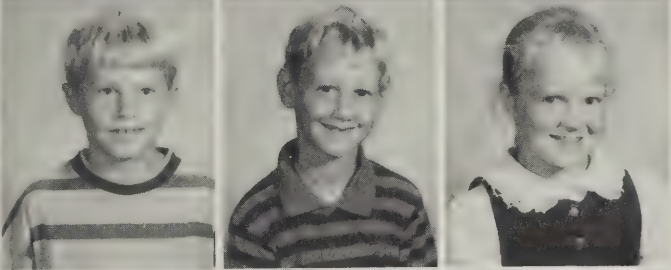

Hugh Haynie Crockett
Jennifer Kay Crockett
Kara Elizabeth Eskridge
William Brent Laird
Amanda Hammond Makey
James Dail Parks
Irene Marie Pruitt

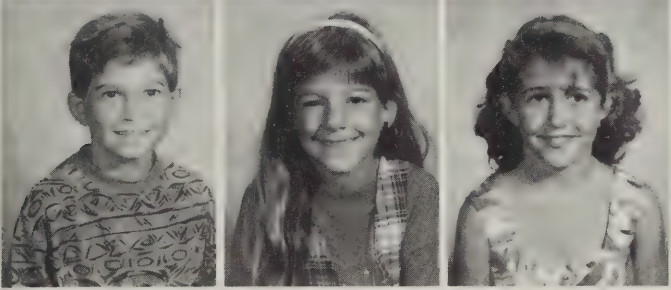

3rd Grade

Kirby Lynette Bonniwell
Holly Renee Bradshaw
Jeffery Charles Ellis

Joseph Andrew Eskridge
Justin Edward Landon
Lonnie Ann Parks

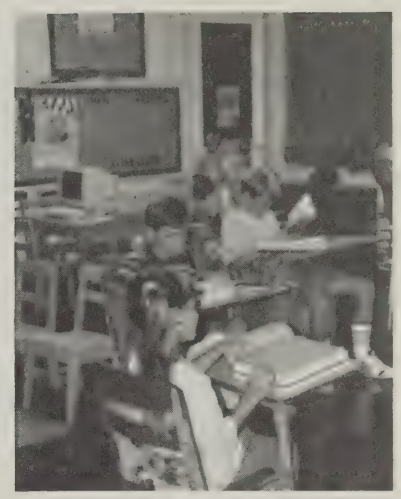

Richard Albert Parks
Melinda Sue Pruitt
Ashley Marie Thorne

Their favorite part of the day! Holly Bradshaw, Mindy Pruitt, Ashley Thorne, Joseph Eskridge, and Lonnie Ann Parks enjoy every minute of it.

Third Grade Reading And Writing That's Second To None

Like the other primary grades, the Third Grade spent much of their time this year reading. Some of the books they read included The Littles, Stuart Little, Rent A Third Grader, Sarah Plain and Tall, and The Substitute Teacher. As part of their studies, they wrote their own versions of many of their books. The third grade watched movies and videos that went with their reading books. They toured the Tangier Fire Station and then wrote a book about their visit. The third grade celebrated Halloween with a party. They played games and had a costume guessing. Ashley Thorne, dressed as "Daisy Duck", was the last one guessed. During the Elementary Thanksgiving Program, the third grade reenacted the first thanksgiving dinner between the Pilgrims and Native Americans with Jeffery Ellis playing the part of the turkey and Ashley Thorne playing the part of the pumpkin. Some other subjects and activities included making applesauce for a thematic unit about apples, learning about the "Fifty, Nifty United States" with a song, and building people with blocks to show their body parts like the stomach, heart, and lungs.

During silent reading, Mindy Pruitt, Richard Parks, Jeffery Ellis, and Lonnie Ann parks, read their books quietly.

For the Thanksgiving Program, Jeffery Ellis played the turkey for the Thanksgiving dinner. He waits for the program to start and passes the time by rehearsing his part.

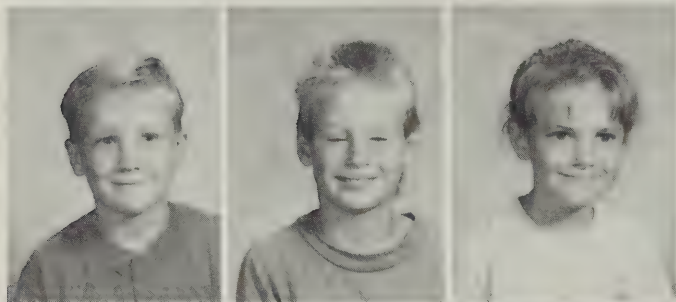

While in the reading circle, Joseph Eskridge, Richard Parks, and Justin Landon concentrate on reading their books.

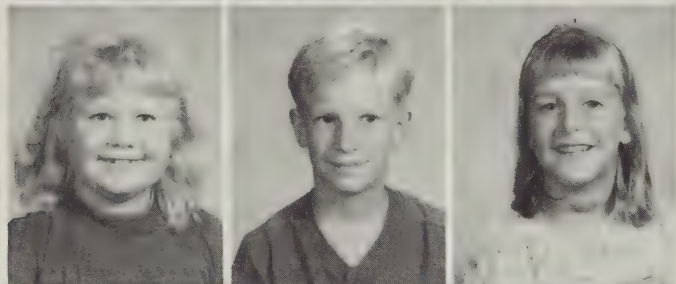

2nd Grade

the greatest
sensation ON Earth

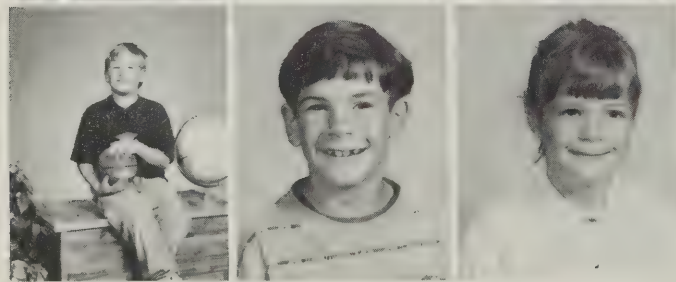

Edward Reese Brown
Derrick Gladstone
Charnock
Elizabeth Ann Charnock

Amber Leigh Dise
Dustin Keith Dise
Sandra Lynn Dise

Gerald Ray Mills
Kyle Alan Moore
Hillary Blake Parks

John Phillip Pruitt
Timothy Logan Robbins
Courtney Olivia D.
Thomas

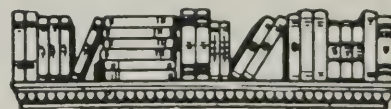

Sandy Dise looks puzzled on her first day of second grade. Is she wondering how twelve students will fit in that small room?

At the Elementary Thanksgiving program, John Phillip Pruitt is getting ready to go on stage as a little Indian Boy. He and his class reenacted the "Indian Dance".

On the way home from the musical rhymes program, Kyle Moore and his class stop for a happy meal at McDonald's.

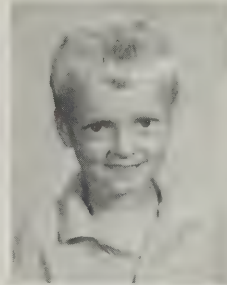

1st Grade

Thanks to the Parent Volunteer Program, the elementary teachers can take advantage of a duty-free lunch. Glenna Crockett helps James Crockett, Olivia Goodwin, Samantha, Kenny Pruitt, and Nicole Crockett.

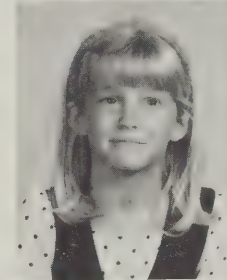

At the Fall Fashion/Skit show, Kenny Pruitt, Brian Pruitt, and Samantha Williams wait for the next group of juniors and seniors to model their clothes.

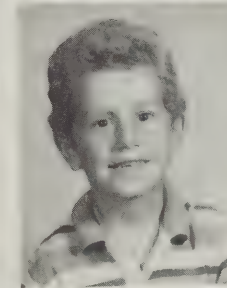

James Russell Crockett, Jr.

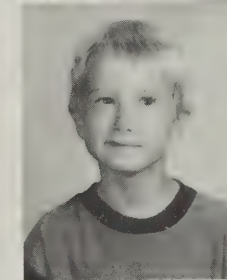

Jamie Nicole Crockett

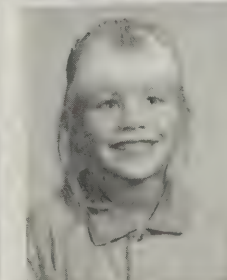

Olivia Marie Goodwin

Brian Philip Pruitt

Kenneth Kelly Pruitt

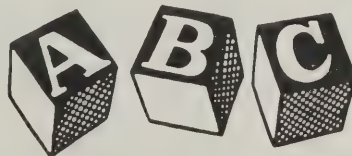

Samantha Marie Williams

the fuN ONES

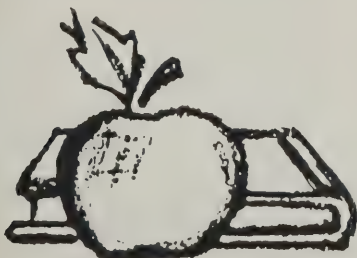

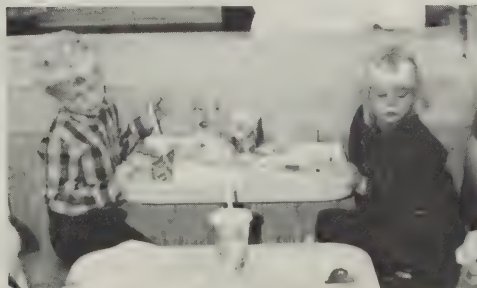

The first grade started a new reading curriculum concentrating on "whole language" thematic units. They have written "big books" of many of their activities. After their trip to the Tangier Fire Station, the first grade wrote Our Trip To The Fire Station. They read lots of poetry throughout the year. In the fall, the first grade traveled to Nandua High School with the other primary grades. They watched a presentation of musical nursery rhymes by a traveling performing group. On the way home, they stopped at McDonald's for lunch. In October, the first and second grades held the Halloween party together. They played games like bobbing for apples and whistling with crackers. Their parents provided lots of good treats. They celebrated Christmas and Valentine's Day with parties, too. The first grade made black-eyed peas for "good luck" after returning from Christmas break. They dyed eggs for Easter and participated in an Easter egg hunt. The first grade had a first year second to none!

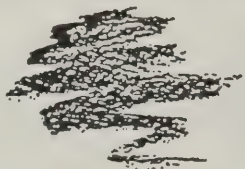

For the Elementary Thanksgiving program, Brian Pruitt gets ready to go on stage and reenact the first Thanksgiving dinner.

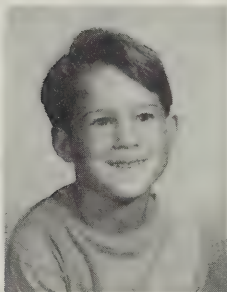

On the way to Nandua for a nursery rhymes program, James Crockett and Samantha Williams eat a Happy Meal for lunch. What a treat!

kindergarten is second to none kindergarten is second to none kindergarten is

A First Year Second To None

Katherine G. Crockett
William Dustin Gust

Rachel Brooke Marshall

Ravan Rochelle Marshall
James W. Tyler, Jr.

The population of Tangier Combined School grew by five this year when Kate Crockett, Dusty Gust, Brooke Marshall, Ravan Marshall, and "Tyler" Tyler started the kindergarten. The first day of school provided for a few laughs and a few tears and lots of photo opportunities. This year provided the opportunity for the kindergarten class to have a regularly scheduled library time. Another first for T.C.S.! The students liked going to the library because they could choose books and Mrs. Nina Pruitt read stories to them. Miss Paulette Parks conducted a thematic unit on apples and one on peanuts during which the kindergarten made applesauce and peanut butter. In October, for Fire Prevention Week, the kindergarten traveled to the Tangier Fire Department with the first, second, and third grades. They tried on the fire equipment, looked in the ambulance, and received a coloring book about fire safety. Fire Chief Rudy Shores blew the sirens for the children. "They were loud!", said Ravan Marshall. For the Elementary Thanksgiving Program, the students sang "Little Indian Maidens" and "Little Indian Warriors". Dusty Gust said there was a tent on stage and they played "hide and seek". In April, the kindergarten hunted for easter eggs and wore their easter bonnets in an easter parade around the town. When asked what they did in school, "Tyler" Tyler replied, "We do work!" A day in kindergarten also involves play time, coloring time, and lunchtime. Ravan Marshall and "Tyler" Tyler said that their favorite part of school was everything, while Dusty Gust especially liked the hard work. Brooke Marshall's favorite activity was coloring time and Kate Crockett liked playtime. Miss Parks makes kindergarten second to none!

On the first day of school, Miss Paulette Parks, Brooke Marshall, "Tyler" Tyler, Dusty Gust, Ravan Marshall, and Kate Crockett pose for their first kindergarten picture. The first day of school can be a traumatic event for both mom and student. Others, however, are anxious to get on with it!

For the Elementary Thanksgiving program, Ravan Marshall reenacts the first Thanksgiving dinner with her class.

During the Elementary Fall program, Dusty Gust, and Ravan Marshall perform a "Native American" dance to "Ten Little Indians."

Before school starts for the students, the teachers go to school several days earlier. Dewey Crockett, Jean Crockett, and Bruce Gordy give Denny Crockett their full attention during a faculty meeting.

To start the game against Epworth Academy, Bruce Parks tips off the ball. Islanders tamed the Lions 43 to 75.

On the way home from school, Mike Parks, exhausted from extensive thinking, weary from working on worksheets, and tired from tedious technology education, stops to take a nap.

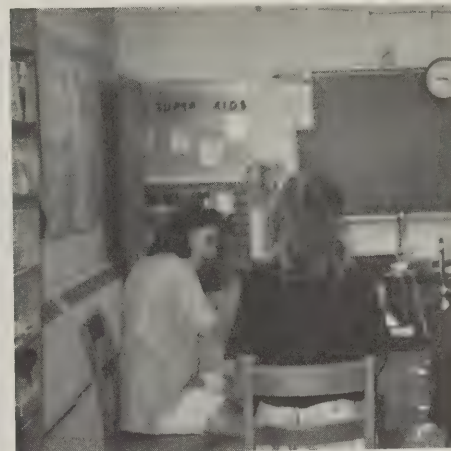

"Hey, you, in the stands, Stand up and clap your hands ..." At a home basketball game, Jaclyn Pruitt takes her cheering seriously.

This year, the eighth and ninth grade participated in the D.A.R.E. program for middle schools. The instructor for this program was Sgt. Larry Giddens. He traveled to Tangier once a week with Deputy David Drummond, the instructor for the elementary D.A.R.E. program.

In the morning, Paul Haynie and Hugh Crockett try to decide what school supplies they might need to buy from the Cheerleaders Bookstore.

Student life includes much more than school, books, and homework. James Eskridge and Andy Haynie show off their fooseball skills at a local hangout for teenagers.

During science class, Shelli Crockett and Miriam Eskridge work together on their project. Look out, Madame Curie!

For the Junior/Senior Fashion Show, Allison Wreatley and Andrea Parks change from their modeling clothes to their skit show outfits.

Faculty

Mr. Dennis K. Crockett
Principal

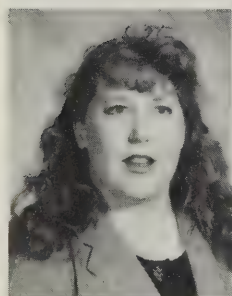

At the Christmas Party, Paulette Parks, Tim Robbins, Jean Crockett, and Nina Pruitt enjoy refreshments while the students dance. Teachers provide students with opportunities ranging from field trips to field day activities to class parties and dances. This is in addition to the regular teaching day that includes lesson plans, grading papers, lunch and recess duty, fund raising, teaching, testing, and collecting money. Some teachers assume extra curricular responsibilities over and above their teaching duties. Bryan King coached the basketball team. Nina Pruitt taught Drivers Education. Jean Crockett directed the junior/senior play. Carlene Shores and Dewey Crockett advised the M.G.A. and Hi-Y.

After school, Mrs. Carlene Shores spends time grading papers. This proves a teacher's day does not end when the students go home.

As Mr. Dennis Crockett watches, Mrs. Carlene Shores shows Mr. Bruce Gordy how to fill out the latest in the year long myriad of required paperwork.

Mrs. Stephanie Brown
Special Education

Miss Henrietta Crockett
4-7 Grade Reading/Lang. Arts

Mr. Dewey Crockett
High School Social Studies

Mrs. Jean Crockett
High School English

Mr. Bruce Gordy
H.S. Tech. Ed./Business

Mrs. Sharon Haynie
First Grade

Mr. Bryan King
4-7 Social Studies/Health

Mrs. Joy Parks
Second Grade

Miss Paulette Parks
Kindergarten/H.S. Home Ec.

Mrs. Nina Pruitt
Librarian

Mrs. Sherlou Pruitt
4-7 Grade Math/Science

Mr. Timothy Robbins
High School Spanish

Mrs. Carlene Shores
High School Math/Typing

Mrs. Hope Shores
Third Grade

Dr. Carolyn Van Dyck
High School Science

Faculty/Staff

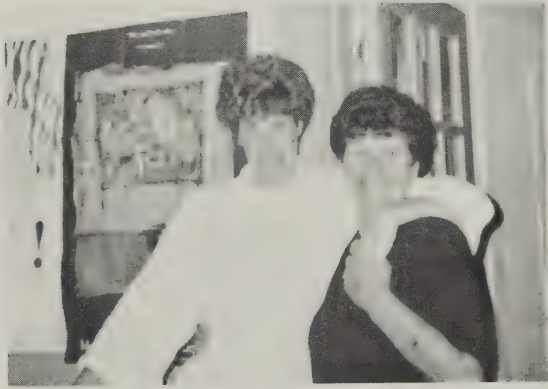

Mrs. Jody Cannon
Cafeteria
Mrs. Adelle Crockett
Teacher's Aide
Mrs. Elizabeth Crockett
Teacher's Aide
Mrs. Gwen Dize
Secretary

Miss Maureen Dize
Cafeteria
Mr. Fuller Dize
Custodian
Mrs. Norma Dize
Teacher's Aide
Mrs. Ruby Dize
Custodian

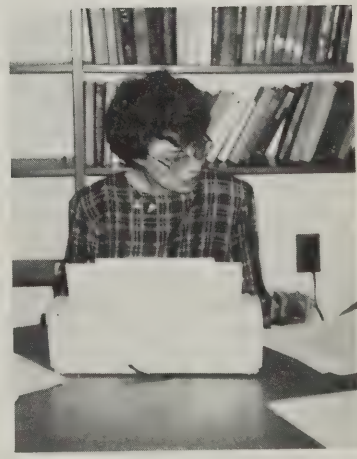

Mrs. Sandra King
Teacher's Aide
Mrs. Mary Lee Moore
Teacher's Aide
Mrs. Mary "Bubs" Shores
Teacher's Aide
Mrs. Nedra Williams
Cafeteria

Hard at work, Norma Dize works on one of the many jobs required of a teacher's aide. Along with collecting lunch money and lunch counts, teacher's aides provide a vital service to teachers by making bulletin board, checking papers, and xeroxing worksheets, just to name a few. This frees a teacher's day in order to spend more time on teaching and lesson plans.

Another important service is provided by the custodian staff. They clean the school and empty the trash. They arrive early and turn on the lights and the heat on cold winter days. They make repairs, replace light bulbs, unclog plumbing, and make emergency repairs on leaking ceilings. Lisa Wheatley and Ruby Dize sweep the school everyday. Lisa fills in for Fuller or Ruby when one of them needs a day off.

Every school has a variety of personnel who support the learning process. Nina Pruitt, librarian, is just such a person. She not only teaches a research class every day, she also arranges the library schedule so that every student first through seventh grade has a weekly session in the library.

Dressed as members of the armed services, Teri Pruitt, Faughn King, and Andrea Parks enjoy the Halloween Party.

Having already been guessed, Faughn King, Andrea Parks, and Joey Cooper wait patiently for the games to begin. This is their last Halloween Party and they plan to make the most of it.

Before the Halloween Party, Miriam Eskridge and Shelli Crockett worked hard and helped decorate the cafeteria. They covered the refreshments table with paper and helped Mrs. Carlene Shores and Mrs. Nina Pruitt set up tables and chairs.

Before a home game, Allison Wheatley (captain), Ginna McCreedy, Leslie Parks, and Shelli Crockett practice their halftime routine.

At the Fall Fashion Show, Denny "Herb" Dise seems content with his performance as he trots off stage.

While playing musical chairs, Norman Parks thinks over his strategy. He hopes to win this time! Maybe he had better stick to the spoon game.

At the Halloween Party, Curt Shores imitates an "I Feel Like Chicken Tonight" commercial as he rounds the corner headed for an open chair.

At a home basketball game, Jeff Shores jumps up to lead the crowd in a cheer. Love the school spirit!

For Columbus Day, Eric McCreedy helps Gerald Mills make replicas of the Nina, Pinta, and Santa Maria.

In the library, Amanda Charnock, Greg Alman, and Candice Thomas work with Brian Pruitt and Nicole Crockett.

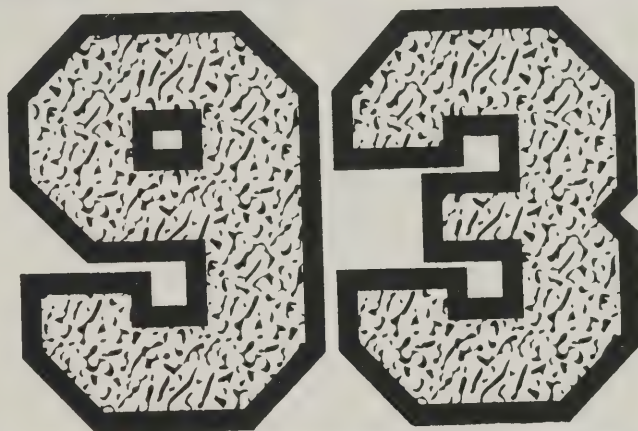

While playing musical chairs, Shelli Crockett pauses to consider her strategy while Bill "Walker" Crockett decides whether or not the music is going to stop.

t.h.s. cheerleaders are second to none t.h.s. cheerleaders are second to none

CHEER

A Cheering Season 2nd To None

The cheerleaders had a cheering season 2nd to None. They accompanied the basketball team to games this year, as well as kept the home crowd psyched up with great new cheers. Thanks to the help of the Broadwater Cheerleaders, they acquired a new cheer called "We Know How To Jam" that everyone seems to enjoy. They danced to "The Achy Breaky" and learned many new cheers. This year, they had fund raisers such as selling fruit, having a spaghetti dinner, and selling spirit ribbons and rooter pom-poms. Each morning, a cheerleader opened the bookstore where they sold items such as pencils, pens, erasers, and notebooks. This money will send the cheerleaders to cheerleader training camp.

Before the basketball game at Arcadia High School, Jackie McCready waits for the other Cheerleaders to finish changing.

Shelli Crockett is always complaining about keeping the bookstore. It doesn't look like she's complaining today as Duane Crockett, Jeff Shores, Curt Shores, and Aaron Dise check out the latest supplies.

Bottom Row: Leslie Parks and Allison Wheatley. Middle Row: Shelli Crockett and Jackie McCready. Top Row: Ginna McCready.

While at Broadwater Academy, the Tangier Cheerleaders joined in with B.V.A. Cheerleaders to do "We Know How To Jam". What fun!

t.h.s. cheerleaders are second to none t.h.s. cheerleaders are

t.h.s. is second to none and don't you forget it! t.h.s. is second to none and don't

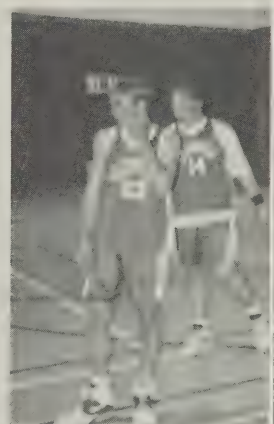

At Mary N. Smith, Carlton Parks dribbles the ball past a M.N.S. Trogan. This game was one of our many wins. Way to go Islanders! The final score was Tangier-54, Mary N. Smith-43.

During the Tangier vs. Mary N. Smith game; Jim Shores waits make a foul shot. Score Two More!!

At Chincoteague High School, Norman Parks and Jim Shores practice shots before the game.

After another great Tangier win, Bruce Parks heads for the locker room to change.

Before the Epworth game Jason Charnock and Joey Cooper wait for their names and positions to be called.

Tangier Islander Basketball Team Bottom Row: Daniel Crockett, Timmy Thomas, Daniel McCready, Carlton Parks, Warren Eskridge. Second Row: Coach King, Bruce Parks, Andy Haynie, Jason Charnock. Third Row: Joey Cooper, Mike Parks, Aaron Dise, Curt Shores, Jim Shores, Norman Parks.

Basket, Basket! Two, Two!

The Tangier Islanders had a great 1992-93 high school basketball season. They acquired three new teammates: Warren Eskridge, Timmy Thomas, and Daniel Crockett. They picked up some new opponents this year, too. In addition to Mary N. Smith Middle School, Parksley Middle School, Broadwater Academy, and Epworth Academy, they played Chincoteague High School, Nandua High School, and Parkway Academy. The seniors who graduated this year were Norman Parks, Bruce Parks, Curt Shores, Aaron Dise, and Joey Cooper. The Islanders enjoyed an undefeated season this year. The Islanders really are second to none!! Go, Islanders, Go!!

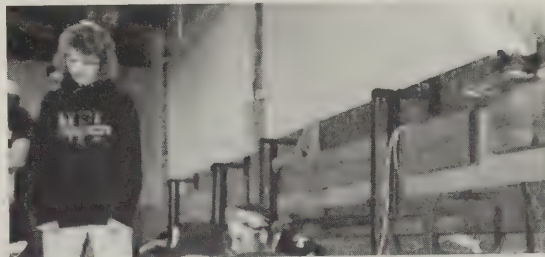

1992-93 Basketball Schedule

Game 1 — Tangier vs. Broadwater Tangier-61, Broadwater-48
Game 2 — Tangier vs. Chincoteague Tangier-69, Chincoteague-45
Game 3 — Broadwater vs. Tangier Broadwater-45, Tangier-50
Game 4 — Mary N. Smith vs. Tangier Mary N. Smith-43, Tangier-54
Game 5 — Chincoteague vs. Tangier Chincoteague-20, Tangier-41 (Aaron Dise injured 4th quarter, game called)
Game 6 — Worcester vs. Tangier Worcester-43, Tangier-76
Game 7 — Tangier vs. Nandau-55
Game 8 — Parksley vs. Tangier Parksley-47, Tangier-77
Game 9 — Epworth vs. Tangier Epworth-43, Tangier-75
Game 10 — Arcadia vs. Tangier Arcadia-41, Tangier-65

field day is second to none field day is second to none field day is second to

Athletics

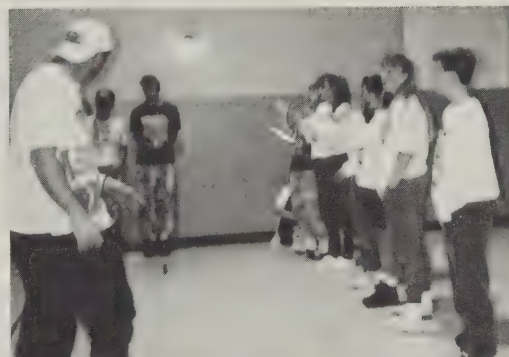

Playing ring toss, Lorin Wheatley focuses on playing the game while Denny "Herb" Dise watches his moves with rapt attention.

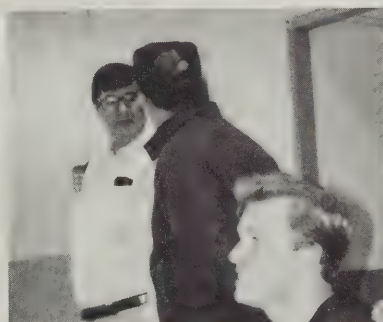

One, Two, Three . . . Go

On January 29th, the high school's first field day took place at the Tangier Recreational Center. Competitors consisted of three teams. Team A — Curt Shores (captain), Bruce Parks, Teri Pruitt, Hope Crockett, Faughn King, Crockett, Jim Shores, Carey Cline, Jeff Shores, Cathy Bradshaw, Miracle Creedle, Allen Parks, Neil Parks, Don Warden, and Josh Pruitt. Team B — Denny Dise (captain), Aaron Dise, Norman Parks, Christopher Parks, Allison Wheatley, Andy Haynie, Lorin Wheatley, Ginna McCready, Daniel McCready, Duane Crockett, Charles Dise, Jam Eskridge, Mike Parks, J.R. Parks, and Jared Parks. Team C — Joey Cooper (captain), Andrea Parks, Jason Arnock, Jason Thomas, Joan Parks, Carlton Parks, Jaclyn Pruitt, Jackie McCready, Shelli Crockett, Heather Wheatley, James Eskridge, Christa Dise, Timmy Thomas, Warren Eskridge, L.W. Creedle, and Nick Dise. Some activities included: foul shooting, ring toss, beanbag toss, and relay racing. The winner of the field day, Team B, received a half day off from school. Team A and Team C tied for second place. Team B celebrated by going to Lorin Wheatley's house for lunch. The other teams got out of school early for coming in second place.

Joey Cooper plays the beanbag-over-the-shoulder game while Timmy Thomas, Jackie McCready, Jaclyn Pruitt, Daniel McCready, Andrea Parks, and Joan Parks cheer for him. Jason Thomas acts as the unofficial line judge.

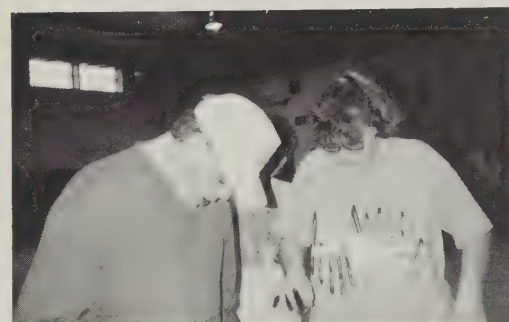

Watching on the bleachers, Teams A and B watch Team C's performance playing shuffleboard, making sure Team C does not beat their score.

Aaron Dise rests while Mr. Dewey Crockett and Mr. Bruce Gordy discuss team points.

Shooting foul shots, Michael Parks strains to make points for his team.

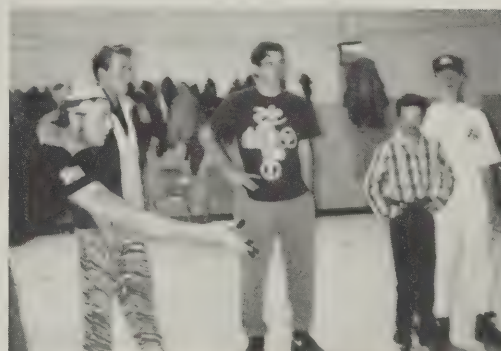

As Ginna McCready drops pencils into a bottle, her teammates Christopher Parks and Jared Parks cheer her on to victory. Team B ultimately won the field day competitions. They celebrated their win with a half day off from school.

Bruce Gordy, Jean Crockett, Dewey Crockett, and Carlene Shores discuss rules and regulations.

Denny "Herb" Dise plays the beanbag toss while Aaron Dise, Andy Haynie, Daniel McCready, and Charles Dise watch.

none field day is second to none field day is second to none

M G A I - Y

Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y Hi-Y

Hi-Y Members First Row: Cathy Bradshaw, Leslie Parks, Heather Wheatley, Miriam Eskridge, Christa Dise, Shelli Crockett. Second Row: Ginna McCready, Jaclyn Pruitt, Allison Wheatley, Teri Pruitt, Andrea Parks, Faughn King. Third Row: Jared Parks, Nicholas Dise, Duane Crockett, Jeff Shores. Fourth Row: Curt Shores, Aaron Dise, Andy Haynie, Bill Crockett, Jim Shores.

Delegates to the Virginia Model General Assembly First Row: Teri Pruitt — Senate Patron, Andrea Parks — House Delegate. Second Row: Shelli Crockett — Page, Cathy Bradshaw — Reporter, Leslie Parks — Senator, Allison Wheatley — House Patron. Third Row: Curt Shores — Senate Patron, Aaron Dise — House Delegate, Jeff Shores — Lobbyist, Bill Crockett — House Delegate, Jim Shores — Senator

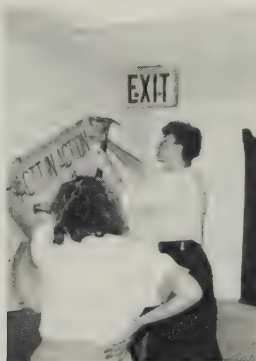

Hi-Y Officers Front Row: Andrea Parks — Treasurer, Duane Crockett — Chaplain, Faughn King — Secretary. Back Row: Teri Pruitt — Vice-President, Curt Shores — President.

Student Service

Second To None

As part of the Young Men's Christian Association, Hi-Y is a service organization dedicated to helping people. On October 17, 1992, the members of the Hi-Y assisted Rural Health Services by setting up for the Health Fair Day. The Health Fair was conducted at the school and included a variety of free medical services. Another big project for the Hi-Y was participation in the annual Model General Assembly held in Richmond, Virginia, on April 15-17. It was a weekend when high school students from across the state of Virginia traveled to Richmond and established a mock state legislature. They presented bills, voted on legislation, conducted committee meetings, and made laws. The students gained first hand experience about legislative proceedings and parliamentary procedures. To earn money for M.G.A., the Hi-Y members held a Christmas Bazaar on December 14th, that was a huge success. Children could buy balloons, hotdogs, and candy, and have their picture taken with Santa Claus. Meanwhile, moms and dads had the opportunity to finish up their last minute shopping. In March, the Hi-Y sold T-shirts, caps, and aprons with a picture of the school drawn by (who else?) our own Jenny Crockett, formerly of Tangier. Finally, the Hi-Y held an Easter Bazaar to round out their fund raising.

For the Health Fair, Shelli Crockett and Mrs. Nina Pruitt hang a sign about positive parenting skills. This table presents information about community resources and agencies.

In Mr. Dewey Crockett's room, Faughn King and Andrea Parks hang a sheet to provide privacy during examinations. The Hi-Y sets up everything on Friday for the Health Fair on Saturday.

5th Grade D.A.R.E. Class

Front Row: Lindsay Parks, Kristan Parks, Jenny Wheatley, Lonnie Renee Moore.
Back Row: Adam Parks, Paul Haynie, Rudy Thomas, Gary Parks.

D.A.R.E.
To Keep Kids Off Drugs!!

This year was the beginning of the middle school D.A.R.E. program at Tangier Combined School. D.A.R.E. stands for Drug Abuse Resistance Education and is sponsored by the Accomack County Sheriff's Department. Sgt. Larry Giddens, who used to be in charge of the elementary D.A.R.E., was the instructor of the middle school program with Mrs. Nina Pruitt as a cooperating teacher. The middle school sessions were once a week for ten weeks. In the eighth and ninth grade, the D.A.R.E. curriculum concentrated on building on old skills and added new knowledge. Many activities involved cooperative learning teams with group activities. The middle school level was unable to participate in D.A.R.E. Day. Next year, the middle school program will be directed to eighth graders only. On the elementary level, the new instructor was Deputy David Drummond. The elementary sessions met once a week for seventeen weeks. In the spring, the fifth grade participated in a D.A.R.E. Graduation that included skits, essays, and guest speakers. Finally, in May, they were with five hundred students for D.A.R.E. Day, a county wide activity day with games and food.

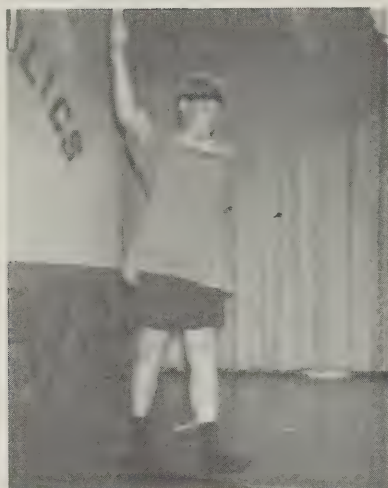

8th & 9th Grade D.A.R.E.

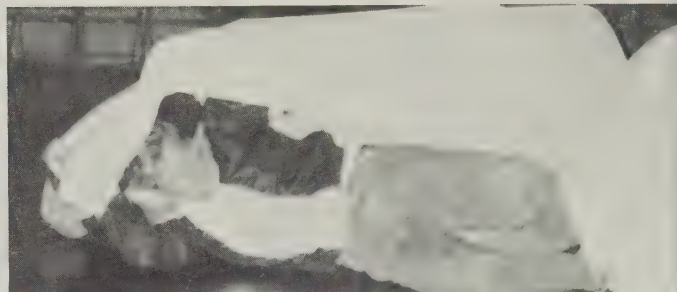

First Row: Josh Pruitt, Jared Parks, Christa Dise, Heather Wheatley. Second Row: Nicholas Dise, L.W. Creedle, Timmy Thomas, Warren Eskridge, James Eskridge. Third Row: Jackie McCready, Shelli Crockett, Daniel McCready, Miriam Eskridge, Allen Parks, J.R. Parks. Fourth Row: Duane Crockett, Neil Parks, Don Bowden, Mike Parks, Charles Dise.

Special Events

While modeling aerobic wear for funny modeling, Christopher "Waah" Parks waits for an encore.

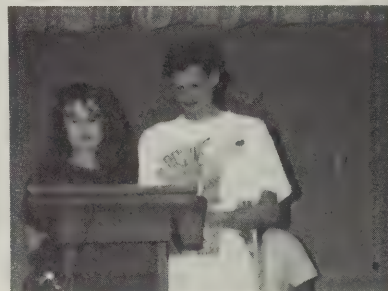

At the Halloween Party, Aaron Dise has a difficult time staying under the sheet so he won't be guessed. Fortunately, no teachers were watching.

In The Second Groove

The High School hosted three dances and one party this year. The Back to School Dance was held on September 10th. The weather was quite warm and every fan in the school was enlisted to cool the cafeteria. The Halloween Party was held on October 27th. The winner of the costume guessing was J.R. Parks. The Christmas Dance took place December 21st and the Valentine's Dance was on the 11th of February. The Fall Fashion/Skit Show was held November 2nd.

Practicing for the skit show, Faughn King and Bruce Parks play their roles as Mr. and Mrs. Bush.

After dancing a while at the Christmas dance, Ginna and Jackie McCready take a break for refreshments and to cool off.

Joan Parks and Bruce Parks make a statement at the Fashion Show.

Leslie Parks looks spectacular as she models in the fashion show.

Before the Back to School Dance really gets underway, Mrs. Carlene Shores and Duane Crockett break in the dance floor and show off their moves.

While playing the "spoons" game, Denny "Herb" Dise shouts with excitement as he is the last one left. What a way to end his last Halloween Party!

At the Back to School Dance, Mr. Dewey Crockett joins in the Locomotion with Teri Pruitt and Curt Shores. He lives by the old adage: "You are only as old as you feel".

v.i.m.s. is second to none v.i.m.s. is second to none v.i.m.s. is second to none

VIMS

First Row: Shelli Crockett, Ginna McCreedy, Allison Wheatley, and Jaclyn Pruitt. Second Row: Jackie McCreedy, Miriam Eskridge, Cathy Bradshaw, Christa Dise, and Mrs. Van Dyck. Third Row: Nick Dise, Jeff Shores, Duane Crockett, and Jared Parks. Fourth Row: Denny Dise, Lorin Wheatley, Andy Haynie, Carlton Parks, Neil Parks, and Curt Shores. Sorry for sloppy photo.

Islanders Help With Blue Crab Study.

The Virginia Institute of Marine Science sponsored the regional blue crab recruitment study of the Chesapeake Bay. Tangier Combined School students have participated in this study for the past four years. The data collected by our students represents one quarter of the data collected by V.I.M.S. Our collection plays a crucial role in the blue crab study. From this data, the Institute is able to predict future availability of blue crabs in the Chesapeake Bay. Tangier High School students collected megalopae or "baby" crabs from July to November. Every morning, students collected filters and replaced them with dry filters. The filters were brought to school and rinsed three times. All of the water was poured through a sieve. The sieve collected megalopae as well as fish, seaweed, and other assorted marine life. Each of the megalopae was picked out and preserved in saline in small collection jars. Finally, in May, the research project directors visited Tangier and collected their jars and rewarded the students with cake, decorated like megalopae, sodas, and participation certificates.

At the dock, Ginna McCreedy and Jaclyn Pruitt pull up the V.I.M.S. filters to change and rinse them.

As two of the V.I.M.S. helpers, Lorin Wheatley and Carey Cline are busy changing the four filters.

After changing filters, Ginna McCreedy and Jaclyn Pruitt collect the filters and head back to school.

Autographs

Yearbook Staff: Miriam Eskridge, Ginna McCready, Jaclyn Pruitt, Shelli Crockett.

Having flushed her layout in utter frustration, Jaclyn Pruitt realizes it was the correct layout and she is now trying to retrieve it!

The "busiest" member of our staff was Miriam Eskridge who fit meetings between piano lessons, clamming, and trips to Russia. This would have been a picture of Miriam!

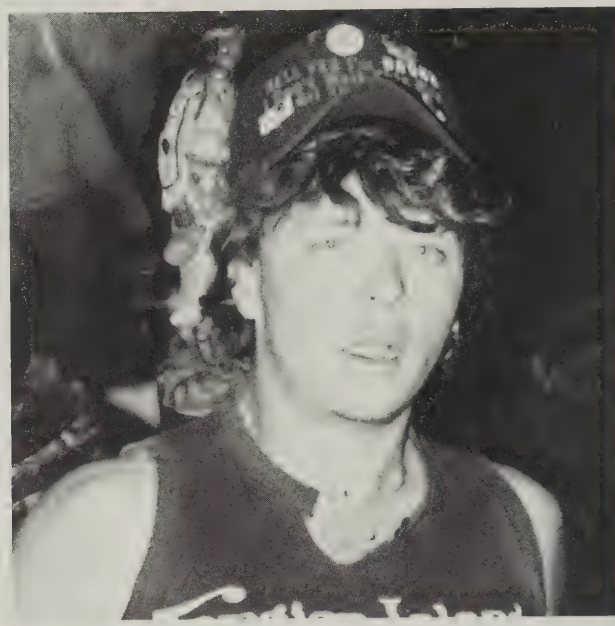

Drawing innumerable layouts and writing endless copy has driven Shelli Crockett completely mad! The last we saw of her, she was in the shop trying to make a layout from a half inch particle board.

At one of our many meetings, Ginna McCready crops pictures for a lay out. It took us six weeks to figure out how to use the "info-scraper"!

The Yearbook Staff spent many LONG hours working after school and on the weekends in an effort to bring you a 1993 Harborlight yearbook that is SECOND TO NONE!! We hope that this yearbook exceeds all of your expectations and will provide the magic of memories for years to come. This book is the product of hard work and dedication, laughter and tears, arguments and a few moments of sheer brilliance. Should you like your yearbook, please tell us. If not, we would like for you to apply to join the yearbook staff next year! We have a few very special people that we owe a debt of gratitude. Thank you to Mr. Dennis Crockett for allowing us the freedom to work and for the support of our efforts, Mrs. Nina Pruitt for the use of the library (Ginna says sorry about the ginger ale), to teachers and students alike for giving us the purpose and inspiration for this book, to our parents for their support and encouragement, to Brent and Lewis for licking over five hundred envelopes and stamps, to Ruby and Fuller for cleaning up our messes, to Greg, our unofficial member, for all the great candid photos, and to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gibbs for their hospitality during our yearbook workshop. Our thanks to everyone who made the moments that shaped our book, our memories, and our lives. We started from scratch and in four and a half very short months we put together this yearbook. We learned more than we ever really wanted to know about copy, captions, cropping, and layouts. All in all, it has been an interesting experience. Some of us loved it and some of us did not love it. It takes a special type of person to spend the amount of time required to make a yearbook both personal and interesting to each of its readers. This year's staff was a very special group. They tried to maintain their motivation and energy throughout the entire yearbook process without really completely knowing what they were doing. As yearbook adviser, I dedicate this book to them. Their perseverance gives them good cause to be proud of their work. Good job, ladies! I am proud of you! You ARE second to none!!

In Loving Memory of Our Son and Brother

We miss you,
Mom, Dad, Eddie, Freddie, and Brent

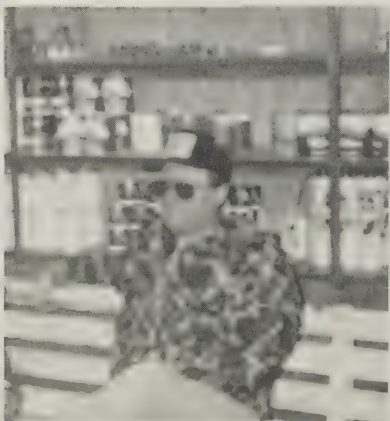

CONGRATULATIONS GRADS

Tangier Oil Company

Tangier, VA 23440

(804) 891-2500

Congratulations
Class Of 1993

FAMILY STYLE MEALS

COMFORTABLE
LODGINGS

TANGIER ISLAND
CHESAPEAKE BAY

HILDA CROCKETT'S CHESAPEAKE HOUSE

The Eastern Shore
has many strengths,
F&M is one of them.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK EASTERN SHORE

"Of course we can"

Main Office - Route 11, Ocean View, VA 22541

Member FDIC

SHORE AUTO & CYCLE CENTER

USED CARS & TRUCKS MOPEDS

GOKARTS SALES SERVICE

NEW CHURCH, VIRGINIA 23415

(804) 824-5244

Anna & Irene's Gifts

4401 LONG BRIDGE RD.
TANGIER ISLAND, VA 23440

JERRY & INEZ PRUITT Owners

(804) 891-2450
(804) 891-2565

The best banks are built on the strongest foundations... and so are
our future leaders.

PENINSULA BANK

Serving you from 17 offices on the Lower Eastern Shore.

Member FDIC

BARRY J. DOUGHTY
GENERAL MANAGER

DOUGHTY

BUS: (804) 787-1209
RES: (804) 442-7652

FORD-LINCOLN-MERCURY
U.S. RT. 13 - P.O. BOX 40
KELLER, VA 23401

ELLIOTT AUTOMOTIVE SUPPLY CO.

Serving the Entire Eastern Shore
from Three Locations

NAPA

Auto Parts • Farm Equipment • Machine Shop • Uniroyal Tires

Eastville
678-7850

Nassawadox
442-6312

Onley
787-8582

© Curtis Publishing Company

Somerset Animal Hospital

Dr. James L.B. Thompson
Dr. Danny T. Noble
11279 Stewart Neck Road
Princess Anne, MD 21853
301-651-1044

"Patients Are Precious"™

SHORE ELECTRONICS, INC.

67 MARKET STREET
ONANCOCK, VIRGINIA 23417
(804) 787-7777

Two-Way-Radio • Car Phone • TV-VCR
Towers • Antennas • Marine • Satellite

SALES & SERVICE

Andy Dize

Since 1979

TANGIER MAIL & FREIGHT SERVICE

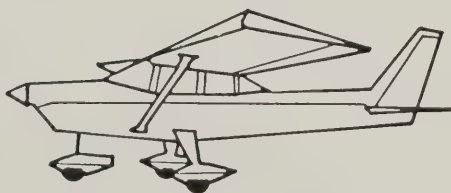

Capt. Rudy Thomas, Jr.

P.O. Box 27
Tangler Island, VA 23440
804-891-2240

CAR-AN Flying Service, Inc.

Chesapeake Aviation, Inc.

W. Carter Crabbe

Melfa, Virginia

Work: (804) 787-2901
Home: (804) 442-7645

A FAIR DEAL FOR US
IS A GOOD DEAL FOR YOU

SAVE
BUY USED

ISLAND AUTO SALES, INC.

4515 CHICKEN CITY ROAD
CHINCOTEAGUE, VA 23336

W. E. "BILL" JONES
OWNER

BUSINESS 804-336-6103
HOME 804-336-5334

SEA STAR EXPRESS

Captain Davy Crockett

*Tours of Tangier Island
Fishing in the Chesapeake Bay Live Bay Music*

804-891-2212

DAVY & DONNA CROCKETT
TANGIER ISLAND, VA 23440

Congratulations To The Class of 1993.

Compliments of the METOMPKIN BAY OYSTER COMPANY

WHOLESALE PRODUCERS AND SHIPPERS

Oysters : Soft Crabs : Crabmeat

P.O. BOX 671

CRISFIELD, MARYLAND 21817

OFFICE PHONE 301-968-0660

RESIDENCE PHONE 301-968-0164

Richard Baggett
Jody Baggett

9134 Scarboroughs Neck Rd. • Belle Haven, VA 23306 • 804-442-3165

INDIAN RIVER CITRUS SALES • FUND RAISING

Gary Pusey's
QUALITY CARS

QUALITY PRE-OWNED CARS & TRUCKS

SALES & SERVICE

ROUTE 13
FRUITLAND, MD 21826

OFFICE (410) 742-0788

BUY YOUR FIRST CAR HERE AND WE WILL REIMBURSE YOUR DRIVER EDUCATION FEES FOR PEGGY PUSEY'S DRIVING SCHOOL!!

Buck's Radiator Service, Inc.

700 Eastern Shore Drive, Salisbury, MD
742-1205 742-1210

CARS • TRUCKS • TRACTORS • DOZERS
CLEANING - REPAIRING - RECORING
COMPLETE HEATERS & RADIATORS
A/C SERVICE

Bill Stubbs
Sales Manager

SINCE 1953

BAGGETT'S AERIAL Ag SERVICE

SPRAYING, SEEDING AND FERTILIZING

LOCATED AT CHERITON, VA.
AND KELLAM FIELD

CHERITON, VA. 331-1560
EASTVILLE, VA. 678-5882

KELLAM FIELD
442-7546
442-4911

TAWES

INSURANCE

948 W. MAIN ST., CRISFIELD, MD 21817

Along with marine insurance, we are now licensed for auto and home insurance in Virginia. Please give us a call.

948 West Main Street
Crisfield, MD 21817

Jay Tawes
(410) 968-1300

BLOXOM AUTO SUPPLY CO., INC.

MAPPSVILLE, VIRGINIA 23407

Howe Paints
GE Appliances
Goodyear Tires
Car Repair
State Inspections

Edward Smith
(804) 824-3456

MERCURY MARINE

GOLDSBOROUGH'S MARINE

709 W. MAIN ST., CRISFIELD, MD 21817
(301) 968-0852

BOBBY GOLDSBOROUGH

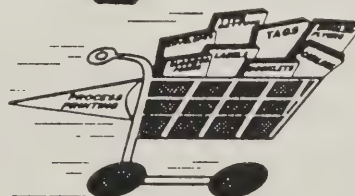

since 1888

J.P. TAWES & BRO.
HARDWARE & AUTO PARTS
1100 W. Main St.
CRISFIELD, MD 21817-1099
Phone: 410-968-1066

1 STOP SHOPPING FOR:

- Booklets
- Business Forms
- Catalogs
- Envelopes
- Labels/Decals
- Business Cards
- Singles/Flyers
- Shipping Tags
- Color Copies
- Office Supplies
- Typewriters
- Copiers
- Faxes
- Rubber Stamps
- Computer Supplies
- Resumes
- Menus

Eastern Shore Printers
Eastern Shore Office Supply
Onancock, Virginia USA
(804) 787-4646 • (804) 787-7710

A TRIBUTE TO EDDIE WILLIAMS

SON — The years
God allowed us to share our lives with you are now a precious memory, Time
has helped ease the pain, But the hurt
anyone can still see.

BROTHER — As all kids
do, we had our share
of fighting and fussing
— Still that does not change this special love we always feel.

HUSBAND — You gave me such a precious baby who is now growing into a beautiful young lady.

DAD — I don't remember what you looked like or even if you talked loud, but I do see your pictures and I hear good things about you and that makes me very proud.

1963-1987

Your life touched the lives of us all
And is still touching us from sun to sun,
The sweet, sweet memories of you, Eddie, have just begun.
So no matter how long we will be apart,
You will always hold a special place in our hearts.

We shall forever love you,
Mom, Dad,
Barry Jr., Angela,
Caroline and Samantha

